WASHINGTON, May 9.—Edward L.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The steamship bound from Norfolk, Va., to Boston, which reported early today, that she was afire off Block Island, is proceed-some time today, according to the

SAYS KHAKI CONTRACT NOT AWARDED

The agitation over the award of a contract for a half million yards of cotton khaki to Spaulding & Co. of Manchester, England, in reference to the Amoskeag Manufacturing company of Manchester, N. H., lost ground today with the statement from the navy department that no such contract has been awarded. With a statement to this effect is an official denial that schedules have been issued asking bids for the furnishing of this quantity of material. The navy department is at a loss to know how the story started.

According to navy department purchasing officials, the only recent purchases for this class of material were a few lots of 500 yard pieces that have been made into garments and issued to various stations for experimental purposes. The samples purchased were all of a domestic make.

Manchester, N. H., textile executives said today that the contract award to Spaulding & Co. was made a year ago but has just become generally known to the public. It is known that Spinner & Co. was in June, 1923, given a contract for 500,000 yards of cotton khaki cloth. It is understood that since then the navy department has made a ruling not to make awards to other than domestic firms.

Orca Hit Amidships—Hole
Torn in Side 15 Feet
Above Water Line

FATHER POINT, Que., May 9.—The Royal Mail Steam Packet liner Orca, bound with passengers from Europe to
New York by way of Quebec where she landed passengers yesterday, collided
last night in a dense fog about 30 miles east of here with the steamer
Porsanger.

The Orca was hit amidships and a hole torn in her side about 15 feet
Porsanger was crumpled and her stem
twisted. No one was injured and it was stated the liners were able to proceed.

The Porsanger, a Norwegian freight-
er, was on her way from Hamburg,
via Shields, Eng., for Montreal. The Orca, of 16,000 tons, was said to be taking water but able to control the influx with her pumps. The Porsanger is a 427-ton vessel.

The Orca which left Southampton
April 29, had discharged most of her passengers at Quebec and was on her way with a remaining 50 passengers to New York.

Damage to the Porsanger, while said
to be considerable, was understood to be well above the water line and not to have caused any leakage.

AMERICA WINS COURT TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

LONDON, May 9.—(By the Associated Press)—America won the Bathurst cup, emblematic of the international championship at court tennis, through the victory of Jay Gould, of Philadelphia, over E. M.
Baerlein, the British champion, in the singles today. Gould defeated Baer-lein in straight sets, 6-5, 6-3, 6-1.
America, having clinched the cup the remaining singles match scheduled will not be played.

Gould's victory squared accounts with Baerlein who scored over the American champion in the cup matches last year.

Gould had previously beaten C. N.
Brace of London, in the singles, and with C. S. Cutting, his teammate defeated Baerlein and Bruce in the doubles. Baerlein scored great Britain's only victory when he won in the singles from Cutting.

"SUN CURE" QUARTZ PERFECTED

"Fused quartz," the most transparent solid material man has ever known—a substance capable of making light travel in circles or around corners—is the revolutionary discovery now holding first place in scientific interest. Unlike glass it permits the passage of ultra-violet and infra-red rays, thus permitting the "sun cure" for various diseases, without exposing the patient to cold air. The picture shows Dr. Edward Berry with two of his aides in the discovery, examining a circular quartz lens at the General Electric company laboratory, Lynn, Mass. P. K. GULBRANSEN The Registering Piano

The REGISTERING Piano

The Gulbransen Registering Piano of today is the world's latest achievement in musical instruments.

It stands absolutely alone in the artistic results it produces and the ease with which they are obtained. It is played by music roll and pedals, as are other instruments of its type, but there the similarity ends.

The Gulbransen registers one's exact "touch" on each note. It can be played with all the feeling, the life, the delicacy of the very finest piano music you ever listened to.

You can graduate the exact shading of each note, not just play it loudly or softly, but graduate the tones just as the most accomplished pianists do in hand-playing.

Ordinary hand-playing can no longer be compared with Gulbransen-playing. Only the most artistic piano playing can be placed in the same class as correct playing of the Gulbransen.

Because these are facts, we are insistent that the Gulbransen be not confused with other instruments of the same type. We challenge investigation of it as an Easy-to-Play Registering Piano that registers your exact touch, that registers your time, that registers your expression.

Mail This and we will tell you on what easy terms you can buy a Gulbransen.

ROYAL PARTY HONORED

King and Queen of Rumania Received With Military Honors at Geneva Today

GENEVA, May 9.—The Associated Press.—Coming especially to pay an official visit to the League of Nations, King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Rumania arrived here today and were received with military honors at the railway station. Their majesties were accompanied by the prince and princess of the city hall. After the municipal reception they proceeded to the palace of the league and then to the International labor bureau.

Simultaneous with the arrival of the royal party, the Geneva newspapers were printing despatches received via Germany reporting that soviet troops were preparing an attack against Rumania on account of the dispute over Bessarabia, that War Minister Traitzky had reached Kamenetz-Podolsk to inspect the soviet army and that skirmishes had occurred in the region of the Dniester between Russian and Rumanian sentinels.

The visit of the king and queen is interpreted by the Geneva press as an answer to those who accuse Rumania of being imperialistic, nationalistic and militaristic, their call upon the league being interpreted by the newspapers as inspired by a desire to show that Rumania seeks only to collaborate with the league for European consolidation and the maintenance of peace, and to demonstrate her determination to work for the development of the ideals of the league.

FOR ANTI-PROHIBITION PLANK IN PLATFORM

NEW YORK, May 9.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university and a delegate to the republican national convention in Cleveland next month, has come out squarely for the insertion of an anti-prohibition plank in the 1924 G.O.P. platform.

His declaration that his party must take that step as "the only way to get back to sound constitutional government" is the latest phase of the nationwide controversy he stirred up ten days ago when, in a speech before New York members of the Missouri society, he launched a vigorous attack on the Volstead act, the 18th amendment and liquor law enforcement generally.

The Columbia president, in a statement yesterday, added that the republican party stood in danger of losing 11 states in the event of enforcement of the prohibition amendment. He said that if it did not take a decisive stand against the existing prohibition situation, his remarks also were construed as a challenge to the anti-Saloon league which he attacked in his Missouri society talk.

SHIP BOARD YIELDS TO NUMEROUS PROTESTS

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Responding to numerous protests from exporters, importers and others, the shipping board has withdrawn its certification that adequate American tonnage is in operation to warrant enforcement of the preferential rail and ocean rate provision embodied in section 28 of the Merchant Marine act. This action automatically requires the interstate commerce commission to rescind, based on the certification, declaring the section effective after June 20.

The board's decision was made late yesterday by a vote of 4 to 3, in the form of a resolution based largely on a memorandum by the co-ordination committee on rail and water rates submitted by President Condit with Secretary Hoover as chairman. The opposition came from the democratic members, who earlier in the day had been defeated by a like vote on a proposal by Commissioner Thompson for modification of the scope of the certification to eliminate certain commodities from its application and restrict the foreign territory embraced.

TO MOVE MAIL ACROSS ATLANTIC IN TWO DAYS

NEW YORK, May 9.—The moving of mail across the Atlantic by dirigible in less than two days flying time, was envisioned today by those who heard of experiments with rigid airships as told by Secretary of the Navy Charles D. Wilson at the annual dinner of the National Security league last night.

"From the success of the Shenandoah voyage, and by trials of the ZR-3, which will be received from Germany next fall for experimental experiments," he said, "the navy hopes to show the practicability of a new means of transportation and communication."

The department is fully alive to the value of aviation in the navy and is opposed to any separation of its aviation from its direct control, the secretary said.

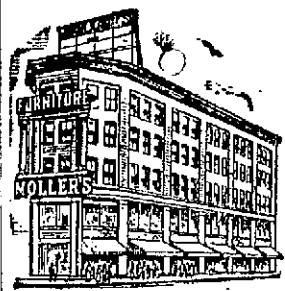

CHARGE IN THE MAIN
CAMBRIDGE, May 9.—The Pennsylvania and Columbia crews, which will race against Harvard at the regatta late tomorrow afternoon, went out on the river in a dirigible rain today for relief spins. The water was so rough that they went up-stream for some distance to find better conditions. All the contestants appeared in excellent shape.

A continuance of the rain and strong east wind is forecast for tomorrow, indicating that the races are likely to be held for attempt to kill.
NEWARK, N. J., May 9.—John O. Volmer, through counsel, pleaded not guilty when arraigned today on a charge of adultery, associated with intent to kill in connection with the hammer attack upon Dr. George A. Nelson, naturopath and physical culturist, last Tuesday. Volmer was held for a hearing on May 16.

No need to give them any more nasty Cod Liver Oil—these tablets are made to take the place of that good but evil smelling, stomach-upsetting medicine and they surely do it. They do not put on flesh.

Ask Green's Drug Store, A. W. Davis, Fred Howard, or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets—as easy to take as candy and not at all expensive—60 tablets 60 cents. "Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets."—Adv.

Have You Piles?

Then You Have Something to Learn. Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was first to find the remedy. His prescription, HEMOID, is now sold by all druggists. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in 1000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent. and then decided it should be sold under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEMOID from Green's Drug Store today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you—it seldom fails.—Adv.

Domestic Heroines in Our Homes

Women who lead a domestic life seem to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. As long as they can drag themselves around women continue to work. No matter how tired they feel all day when overtired, or sitting in cramped positions day in and day out often brings on ailments from which women suffer tortures. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been strengthening women and overcoming such ailments. Sickness and pain caused under its influence and thousands of women have been benefited by it.—Adv.

THE GAS RATE QUESTION

Statement by General Manager of the Lowell Gas Light Company

In a statement made public as result of the recent action of Representative Thomas J. Corbett and others in petitioning the state department of public utilities for a public hearing on the matter of new gas rates recently put into effect by the Lowell Gas Light Co., C. R. Pritchard, vice president and general manager of the company in a statement to The Sun, says that the new rates will be understood and approved upon further explanation and investigation.

He admits that small consumers pay a little more than formerly, but says that heretofore these small users were being carried by the company at a loss and that in no instance is the increase more than a cent and a half a day. He says further that the new rate schedule means an average reduction of a little more than five cents per thousand cubic feet.

Mr. Pritchard's statement follows: "Before putting this sliding scale into effect we studied the rate situation very carefully, investigating similar schedules in several large cities in New England."

"We found there had been some misunderstanding and uncertainty on the part of the public at first, but upon further explanation and investigation the rates met with approval."

"It goes without saying that under the new rates the small user, whom we had been carrying at a loss, pays something more than under the old rate. The greatest increase, however, in any case, is only a cent and a half a day, and in most cases less than one cent per day."

"We can only repeat that this new rate schedule means an average reduction of a little more than five cents per thousand cubic feet, made possible by a reduction in operating costs."

"We believe that this new schedule when fully understood by our many customers and the public will have the approval which it merits."

"C. R. PRITCHARD,

TEXTILE SCHOOL SHOW THIS EVENING

Everything is all set for the annual production of the Lowell Textile school this evening in the Auditorium where the local college students are to present "Nothing But the Truth," which will be followed by dancing until 2 a. m. with Paul Whiteman's Levithan orchestra furnishing the music.

This morning the entire management of the play were at the Auditorium placing the scenery that was contributed for the occasion by local theatres. The Auditorium stage will have the appearance of a regular theatre stage so cleverly have the properties been arranged. This afternoon a final dress rehearsal was held under the direction of the coach, Frank E. Fowler, of Malden.

The Levithan orchestra will appear in their natty white broadcloth uniforms, the full dress on shipboard. Keith Pittman, who was bandmaster on the "Levithan" from the time the gigantic liner, the pride of the U. S. navy, first took the seas under the stars and stripes, is one of the famous orchestra leaders of the country.

The ticket manager of the performance this morning announced that an advance sale of over 1500 tickets had been made which gives assurance that the attendance will be larger than that of last year when fully 2500 witnessed the Textile school play and the dance which followed.

The entire proceeds of the affair are given to the athletic association of the school in order to develop athletic teams that will bring the largest colleges of the east to Lowell.

ASK ABUTTERS TO MAKE CONNECTIONS

The board of public service yesterday decided to take special steps to ascertain that all abutters along Princeton boulevard have made what sewer, gas, water and other pipe connections may be desired. It is desired that all such work be completed before May 17 in order that the new Princeton boulevard will have at least a short lease of life, before petitions to break open for the laying of pipe start coming in to the board.

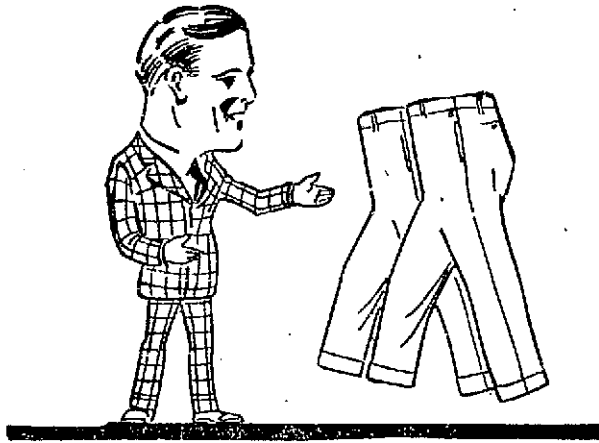

Construction work there started yesterday and the board is desirous that all connection work be done in conjunction with the paving program.

"My Good Health Today is Due to Tanlac"

Says Mrs. Hayden, of Brockton, Mass., Tells How She Broke Shackles of Ill Health

"Judging from the results in my own case, Tanlac deserves all the praise that is being given it," is the glowing tribute of Mrs. Julia Hayden, 457 N. Main st., Brockton, Mass. "Stomach trouble, lack of appetite and nervousness had caused me great suffering for a whole year. Nearly everything I ate brought on stomach pain, gas and bloating, and nervousness made it almost impossible to get a good night's sleep. I was hardly able to move around the house and would be confined to my bed for days at a time."

"That I am in good health today is every bit due to Tanlac and to Mrs. Isabelle Harding, 22 Lynwood st., Brookville, Mass., who advised me to take it. Tanlac gave me a splendid appetite, relieved the stomach trouble, quieted my nerves and did me a world of good in every way. I have great faith in Tanlac."

"Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold."

As in several years past, the clubs are under the able direction of J. Edward Donner, who has been a student of John Herman Loud, organist of Park Street Congregational church, Boston. The individual singing of Thomas R. Larkin of the class of 1924 will be one of the outstanding features of the concert. At the close of the concert at 8:30 o'clock an informal dancing party will be held.

THREE PUT TO DEATH

Kentucky's First Triple Execution by Electrocution Completed Early Today

INDYVILLE, Ky., May 8.—Kentucky's first triple execution by electrocution was completed in Western state penitentiary here early today when Frank Thomas, George Weick and Charles Miller, the latter a negro, paid the penalty of death for murder. They died in the order named.

The doomed trio walked in turn from their cells in the death house to the chair with steady step. Only Thomas made a statement during the final moments. "Good night, I'm going home. I'm not a bit afraid, thank God," he said, as the black cap was adjusted.

The executions were completed in 45 minutes.

Thomas, past 70, and the oldest man ever executed in the state, was sentenced for the murder of Lee Arbuckle, a friend and benefactor, in Jefferson county. Weick died for the murder of William Oakes near Louisville and Miller was convicted of the murder of two railroad guards in Breckinridge county. Thomas and Miller confessed, but Weick protested his innocence.

BROADWAY CLUB SHOW WAS BIG SUCCESS

A large audience last night in the Memorial Auditorium witnessed the musical oddity and dance under the auspices of the Broadway Social and Athletic Association, Inc., for the benefit of the Capt. Cunningham fund. The show, plus added features, was a repetition of the original production given in Associate hall on the night of April 25, about 48 hours before that structure was consumed by menacing flames.

The presentation last night was successful from every angle, and the Broadway boys are deserving of congratulations for their enterprise and service to a worthy cause. Particular commendation is due William Paul McCarthy, the director and accompanist, who devoted much personal time and attention in arranging the many details in connection with the affair.

Such an array of talent as that which performed on the Auditorium stage has seldom been seen in this city. Every one of the participants volunteered their services to the cause and provided an evening of rare entertainment for the gathering of 2500 or more.

Previous to the formal commencement of the program, Councillor Eugene A. Fitzgerald, in the role of Interlocutor, proceeded to the control of the stage with Chief Edward P. Saunders of the fire department and James H. Walker, a member of the Butler Vets just as a military alarm, then 12, was rung in. It was box 12 that first summoned the firemen to the Associate hall fire on April 27 when Capt. Cunningham lost his life. Out of respect to the gallant fire captain, the entire audience rose and stood in complete silence for a period of one minute. It was an impressive tribute to a heroic man.

The entertainment program was divided into two parts, a grand musical featuring Sam Scott's band of Scotch troubadours, the Mandelsohn male quartet and several of the city's prominent soloists.

Part two introduced the grand minstrel, with its humorous end men, popular songs and fancy dances. This part of the program was identical with that presented in the initial production and was carried out with artistic precision by the principals and chorus.

The complete program was as follows:

Thank All Who Assisted
The following card of thanks appeared on the evening's program:

The members of the Broadway Social and Athletic Association feel deeply grateful to each and every individual, business house and organization that joined with us in making tonight's testimonial possible. Such spontaneous, generous and universal co-operation and assistance recall the response made on a previous occasion when we dedicated a memorial to our heroic dead.

Another hero, Capt. Edward J. P. Cunningham, has gone to his reward. He gave his life on the altar of duty; and a grateful community joins in paying him tribute.

As sponsors of the testimonial, we shall never forget all those who assisted us and sincerely hope that all

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair by Washing It

When you wash children's hair be careful what you use. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulshied coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is all that is required. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. Besides, it looks and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. You can get Mulshied coconut oil shampoo in any drug store, and a few ounces will last for months.—Adv.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion or Stomach Trouble
CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis accompanied by dangerous stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with purgative or artificial stimulants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the acid, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines.

Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Bismarck Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better than Bismarck Magnesia to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. It soaks up the harmful excess acid much as a sponge or blotting paper might and your stomach acids and feels fine in just a few minutes. Bismarck Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive.—Adv.

LAWRENCE K. OF C. AT MERRIMACK PARK

The annual pop concert held by Lawrence council, No. 67, Knights of Columbus, will be staged this year at Merrimack park on Monday evening, May 12. The committee in charge is hard at work laying plans that the affair may be the biggest and best of the out-door season. Broderick's orchestra, which has so recently received at the Charity ball, will play for the occasion. The cause for which the concert is run is a worthy one, namely, the Boston college building fund. All proceeds will be donated to Boston college.

$500 ANNUITY FOR WIDOW OF FIREMAN

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, May 8.—The rules committee of the house of representatives has voted to admit for consideration the petition of Representative Owen E. Brennan that an annuity, not exceeding $500 a year, be paid to the widow of William T. Foss, a Lowell fireman, who lost his life in performance of duty.

The bill provides that the act must have the acceptance of the local city government in Lowell.

Mayor John J. Donovan of Lowell sent to the legislature a statement that the council approved the measure by unanimous vote on May 6.

The Cunningham bill, which provides a fireman's annuity benefit, was introduced in the house yesterday and will be on the governor's desk next week.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN AND IMPERILS HOME

North Billerica firemen were summoned to the home of Chester Wong in High street, in the north village, early last evening, fire being discovered in a barn on the Wong estate.

The barn was destroyed and the losses were considerable. The structure containing restaurant supplies, furniture and other household articles which had been stored there by the owner, who lives near by.

The firemen were unable to prevent the barn's destruction, as the fire had a good start, but were successful in isolating the Wong home from flying sparks and scorching. The town authorities say there was no one at home on the Wong estate when the blaze was discovered. It has been the property of the owner for about eight years. Billerica officials estimate the loss to be around $100.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COMMUNION SUNDAY

Fully one thousand members of Lowell council, No. 72, are expected to be in line on Sunday, May 11, to receive communion at the 8:30 o'clock mass at St. Peter's church. All members are requested to meet at 8 o'clock in Prescott street, in line formation, and escorted by the Lowell Cadet band, will march in a body to St. Peter's church. The chaplain of the council, Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan, will be the celebrant of the mass and special music will be rendered by the choir.

After the church services, the members will march to Coburn hall, high school, where a communion breakfast will be served. The speakers at the breakfast will be the chaplain, Fr. Heffernan, and the state secretary, Edmund J. Brandon. An elaborate musical program has been arranged, which will include such well known talent as Andrew McCarthy, John Proctor, William Gookin, Dan Brennan, Tom Tobin, Joseph Lannan and others. Grand Knight Frank A. Graves has appointed the following committee to assist in the exercises: Lecturer Edward F. Slattery, Jr., Joseph Quigley, John Flannery, D.G.K., Edward Cullen, John E. Hart, F.G.K., Thomas Hartley, Timothy Hohan, Thomas Tobin, John O'Brien and Chris McSorley.

BIDS OPENED BY PURCHASING AGENT

Proposals for furnishing hay, sugar and coal to the city were opened this morning at the office of the purchasing agent, as follows:

Hay, 25 tons for street department—E. H. Foye, $22.50. Sugar, 10 barrels for Chelmsford street hospital—N. Wisberg, $7.53; R. K. Dexter, $7.61; Alex. Malloux, $7.68. Coal, 600 tons of bituminous for boulevard pumping station—E. A. Wilson, $7.29; Home Coal Co., $7.67; D. T. Sullivan, $7.53; John P. Quinn, $7.45. Coal, 100 tons New River, for city hall—Home Coal Co., $7.19; D. T. Sullivan, $7.17; E. A. Wilson, $7.19; John P. Quinn, $7.23.

Several Voted Pay Increases

Contention, the water department superintendent was instructed that, commencing with the next payroll to be submitted for the board's approval, the changes recommended be made so that the pay scales in the two departments will conform.

Under this plan two watchmen are raised from $4.50 to $4.88 per day and one bracer meets the same change in status. Nine officers and two coal passers are raised from $4.75 to $5.20 a day.

Butman Road Up Again

Arthur C. Spalding, president of the Oaklands Improvement association, appeared relative to Butman road improvements and was informed that there will be a hearing on the matter held in connection with the board meeting next Thursday. In discussion Mr. Meloy doubted the advisability of immediately macadamizing the street until other streets with priority rights meet attention. The city engineer and superintendent of streets were instructed to collaborate in the presentation of a definite plan for action by the board at next week's meeting.

Naurice E. McCormick, resident manager for the Eastern Mass. St. Ry. corporation, appeared relative to paving between the tracks in Lawrence street.

OUTDOOR RELIEF WORK
The city council committee on charities and Supt. Joseph H. Gormley of the charity department, will confer next Monday night regarding the new ordinance affecting outdoor relief work. This new plan, which provides for the use of the cash and carry plan on grocery orders instead of the present delivery system, will shortly be put into effect.

where repaving is now being carried on by the city. After discussion it was voted to accept the offer of the trolley company to remove its present cabling in that street and about blocks if they are placed by the city. Chairman Murphy scored the company for what he termed its lack of co-operation with the city in construction work and served notice that he intends to insist the trolley company live up to its original agreement with the city which requires it keep all spaces between tracks in a No. 1 condition.

To Check Maintenance

"High street, Stevens street and Nesmith street among many others are bad," said Mr. Murphy. "If the street railway company intends to live up only to the letter of the law in dealing with us on new work we'll hold them to the letter of the law in their maintenance."

Mr. Leary asked Mr. McCormick if he didn't think that the trolley company would save more in the long run by keeping in cadence with the street improvement program and paying its share of paving streets from curb to curb, than it would by its present attitude of doing no more than is legally required. Mr. McCormick doubted. Mr. Meloy took the attitude that if the street railway company pays $16,000 a year or more in taxes the matter of relieving the company from participation in the expense of new street paving is worthy of study. Mr. McCormick said such action has been taken in other cities and pointed out that while the gas and telephone companies use the streets for conduits and other subterranean work they are not charged.

"Fix for Competitor"

"Charging to trolley company is a relic of the old horse-drawn days," said Mr. McCormick. "It was quite the proper thing when we had horses running between our tracks, wearing out the roadway. If you will. But now whatever we spend in fixing up that space is in reality making things more comfortable for the auto, our competitor."

Several new petitions were read at the meeting and held in abeyance pending official views of the territory which would be affected. Peter Flood was engaged as a stable man and transfer in the street department and Edward E. Shanahan as a painter's helper. It will be the latter's lot to paint the streets with the white safety zones in the downtown sections.

Charles Kilpatrick spoke briefly in favor of the recommendation of City Engineer Stephen Kearney that Stevens street be widened and put in better shape, saying he will be only too glad to pay his proportionate cost.

gineer was instructed to prepare plan and profile and the matter will come up at the next meeting.

Street Obstruction Up

On motion of Mr. Meloy, the superintendent of streets was instructed to report on the present condition of Beacon street, with recommendations, and also to report with recommendations on several projects in ward 6 mentioned in a letter received from Councillor J. A. N. Chretien.

A communication from the council, regarding the obstruction of Thorndike street was next given attention. Councillor Cosgrove at the council meeting Tuesday night started an inquiry to find why, by whom, and for how long the street was obstructed in the vicinity of Chelmsford street. The board found that the Burton H. Wiggin Co., contractors, is working there on a permit which expired March 25 and the clerk was instructed to go write the council. It was further decided to instruct Paving Inspector Salmon to include in his duties the supervision of permits in use.

Bills approved included: Sewer maintenance, $5410.22; street lighting, $11,713.96; ashes and waste, $1132.26; macadam, $549.36; sewer construction, $390.98; first street extension, $322.31; new sidewalks, $1175.18; paving, $522.91; street sprinkling, $455.12; transfers, $303.25; water department, $22,115.06.

POWDER RIVER FILMS AT THE RIALTO

"Powder River," the official U. S. War Film which packed the local Memorial Auditorium at prices ranging from 50 cents to $1 will be shown at the Rialto theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the usual Rialto prices. The Rialto management should be commended for bringing this picture back to Lowell at prices that will be within reach of all.

Memories of other days, stirring days of strife and sacrifice are revived as this epic of the screen vividly tells the story of how the war was won and shows the stellar and heroic parts played by American divisions, particularly at Cantigny, St. Mihiel, Chateau Thierry and the Argonne.

MERRIMACK SQUARE

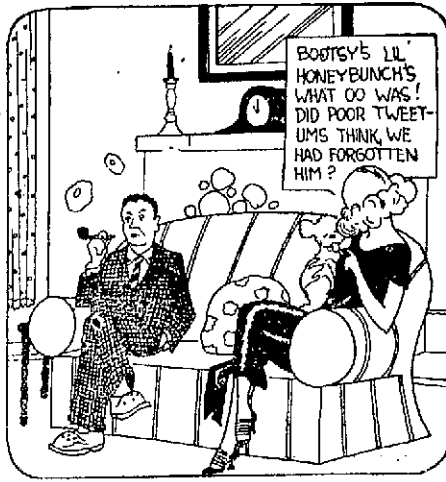

A Tom Mix picture with bathing skin is something out of the ordinary but that's what the famous star offers in his latest production, "Soft-Boiled," now playing at the Merrimack Square theatre. Only a few performances remain. Mix is an out-of-the-ordinary here in this production. It's a story crammed with pop action and pretty girls from start to finish. There are nine reels of entertainment in this feature.

There is an exceptionally good surrounding program, including William Russell in his latest dramatic success, "Alias the Night Wind," a comedy and the latest International News. For Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the management announces Cecil B. de Mille's first picture since

"The Ten Commandments." It is "Triumph" and features the same cast that starred in "The Ten Commandments."

B. F. KELTH'S THEATRE

The telling of a story is an art, which some persons—not infrequently public speakers—never acquire. Tom Kelly, "that Irishman," however, demonstrates at the B. F. Kelth theatre, this week, just how well a story can be told. And all of his stories are new. Lainty Marie never looked better or performed with greater daring than during the present week. Her trapeze work is specially good. Hal, Bruce & Ernie in "A Night on Broadway" introduce novelties, and Simpson & Wallace in music and comedy are novel. Other acts are those of Towse & O'Horty, dancing jugglers, and Damerel & Vail, singers. "For You My Boy" is the title of the week's picture.

THE STRAND

If you have not seen that wonder picture, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," now showing at The Strand, then be sure and avail yourself of the remaining opportunities today and tomorrow. Boston and New York paid $2 prices to see it. Lowell is asked to pay 25 and 35 for the matinees and 35 and 50 nights. Apart from the real value of the story itself, penned by Victor Hugo, the characterization of the Hunchback as interpreted by Lon Chaney is well worth the price of admission. Chaney is known for his remarkable treatment of unusual roles in the past, but in this one he has far outdone his previous efforts. Alan Hale, New York critic of note, calls Chaney's interpretation one of the greatest of his kind on stage or screen. Chaney once worked in studios at $40 weekly, until the coming of "The Miracle Man," when his salary jumped to $1000, gradually mounting to $2500 at the time he was engaged in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." After the press notices were issued concerning his work his services were in great demand and as high as $4500 per week was offered him. He is still considering several tempting offers. The supporting cast is also most commendable. And don't forget that this story has received the approval of all denominations.

RIALTO THEATRE
Over three hours of solid entertainment is offered to local theatergoers who attend the Rialto today and tomorrow and in addition to the lengthy picture program four big acts will be offered tonight and there is no advance in prices. The Friday Night Vaudeville shows are the talk of the town and are worth seeing. Four fine acts have been secured for tonight.

The picture program is headed by Anna Q. Nilsson who is the featured player in "Innocence." In this strong drama Miss Nilsson is seen as Fay Leslie, who marries a successful broker. The latter, while he loves his beautiful wife, is not used to the ways of the stage and his people, and cannot understand the spirit of easy friendliness that prevails among them. And so suspicion gradually takes root in his mind that his young wife is too warmly fond of the young actor who appears with her in her play. In his belief he is strengthened because appearances are so very much against the two, although they are entirely innocent of wrong doing. Here is a strong treatment of circumstantial evidence and its result upon the lives of many people. It forms the basis for a climax that has been inconsistently handled. There is an unexpected twist to the story that makes it one to be remembered. Miss Nilsson is her usual beautiful self—and she is more than that, for she seems to have the rare combination of beauty and intelligence of portrayal.

Other pictures on the program and there are many, include, Leo Maloney in "Hendin' Through" in a Western story with a good theme and plenty of action; the fourth round of "Fighting Blood," H. C. Witwer's well known fight classic; an Our Gang comedy, the second chapter of Ruth Roland in "Haunted Valley" and a new issue of Fox News. Verily this is indeed a quantity as well as quality program and enough to please even the most blasé movie fan.

My Gift to You

The white facial clay I use
By Edna Wallace Hopper

After 10 years as a famous beauty, I still look like a girl. Thousands who see me daily, on the stage and elsewhere, marvel at my youthful bloom and contours.

But mine was largely a cultivated beauty. French beauty experts, many years ago, taught me how to do it. And my girlish looks at my grand old age are due to the help French scientists created.

I have supplied these helps to countless women, and they secured like results. Plain women became beauties. Women old in years have warded off every sign of age. So I know these helps can bring to millions what they crave. And I have decided to supply these helps to all who wish to use them.

First, new-type clay

Many years ago French experts taught me to use clay. They said that famous beauties of all ages had employed it.

They then used crude and muddy clays, like many use today. But they have since perfected clay by 29 years of scientific study.

By countless tests they have found the supreme clay, a rare mineral-laden clay. They have learned how to refine it, to remove the useless mud. My clay today is white and clean and dainty. They have found added factors which bring new and manifold results.

The clay I now use—my White Youth Clay—is nothing like the old-time clays. I have used clays for many years, but no other clay has ever brought comparable results. So now I am having this new-type clay made for all who wish to use it.

You must use clay

Clay is essential to beauty at its best. It brings new beauty, and it does. Many women, in 20 minutes, seem to drop ten years. I have seen it make plain women almost ravishing beauties.

Clay users stand out everywhere for their beautiful complexions. How it restores and maintains one's youthful bloom and contour is shown by my girlish face.

Youth Clay purges the skin of all that clogs and mars it. It acts to remove the cause of sallowness, blackheads and blemishes.

It brings the blood to the skin to nourish and revive it. That brings the rosy afterglow, so amazing when you see it.

It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, radices enlarged pores. Thus it gives my skin, even at my age, the smoothness and bloom of a girl.

No matter what your age, the greatest kindness I can do is to urge you to employ it. If young, do it for added beauty. If older, do it to renew your youth.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Youth Clay is now supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. Price, 50c and $1 per tube. Also my Youth Cream, which should follow the clay. Also my Facial Youth, my famous Liquid Cleanser. Also my Hair Youth, to which I owe my heavy, lustrous hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

I guarantee that any will delight you. If the first package fails to, your dealer will return its price.

AWAIT WORD FROM WHITE HOUSE ON WORLD COURT

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Some definite reaction from the White House and state department was awaited today to the new world court plan proposed in detail yesterday by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader and chairman of the foreign relations committee, which has before it a number of proposals dealing in different ways with the same matter.

Senator Lodge's resolution proposes the setting up of a world court through The Hague conference, which would be reconvened at the call of the president for the purpose, and makes no reference to the court of international justice, established under the auspices of the League of Nations.

Comment on the plan, which was submitted to the senate without explanation, was withheld yesterday in executive quarters, and it was not disclosed whether the president or Secretary Hughes had been informed in advance of Mr. Lodge's intention. Indications appeared clear, however, that Mr. Coolidge had not altered his view, formally set forth to congress that the United States should accept membership in the international court already in existence, as recommended by President Harding.

HANLEY FLAYS MARINE BUYING

Leader in Textile Labor Circles for Cancellation of Uniform Contract Award

Fails to See Why Government Should Permit Bids
From Foreign Competitors

Deplores Policy Which Permits Dumping of British Goods With Our Mills Idle

The rank and file of New England's leading cloth manufacturers, together with many textile union organizations, are thoroughly aroused and disgusted by the news received Wednesday in telegraphic dispatches from Manchester, N. H., announcing that a textile manufacturing concern, located in Manchester, England, has outbid all American cloth-makers on a United States navy marine uniform cloth contract and will be given the order. The value of the clothing contract is estimated at $320,000.

Many United States marines will soon be wearing the British-made khaki, after the usual process from English construction to the army tailors. Awarding of contracts for American naval uniform cloths, is something new and many industrialists, rank and file, cannot understand why Uncle Sam had to advertise for bids on the cotton goods outside of the boundaries of the United States.

Members of the New England textile unions are particularly incensed about it, John Hanley, of the Lowell district of the International United Textile Workers of America, said today. With American cotton mills running on short time and with no future orders in sight, the action of the U. S. navy department in allowing British textile establishments to compete for military uniform cloth at this time, is regarded as something hard to fathom.

"British-Tugged Yanks"
Mr. Hanley said this morning, when the news reached Lowell textile union headquarters in Trades and Labor hall, Central street.

"It is not within understanding—this awarding of a $320,000 contract for textile cloth to English manufacturers, with our mills running only three days a week and in some cases less than that, and many preparing to shut down altogether, as some have

"I suppose that when this cotton khaki is made into ultra-correct uniforms by our naval tailors a little later on, our fighting Yankee seadogs will ride the wave and foam all draped up in British-made toggery that may not bear any English labels, but came from England just the same."
Amoskang Bitten
The Amoskang Manufacturing company put in a bid for the navy order some time ago, but announcement came from Washington that quotation prices on cotton khaki were listed much lower on the English mill applications. The order was for 500,000 yards of cotton khaki suiting for the United States marines. The Amoskang, among other American textile concerns, spent considerable time in preparing sample cloth to comply with government specifications. The Amoskang bid was 64.2 cents per yard, bids being filed some weeks ago. Announcement came early this week that no American manufacturer had bid low enough to secure the khaki contract. English bidders quoting much lower prices.

The American naval union cloth contract went to Spinner & Co., of Manchester, Eng., which underbid the Amoskang corporation by more than 27 cents per yard.
Textile Workers Aroused
Lowell district textile workers are talking of little else today. On the street where many operatives idle and wait for something to happen, the subject of the awarding of the military cloth contract to foreign textile mills, when so many American plants are either running on small time or closed altogether, is discussed with indignation.

Leaders of the unions hard-hit by the present curtailment in the cotton textiles, discussed the subject last evening over council tables, but without formal organization action. Executive Board Member John Hanley expects a formal communication from I.U.T.W. of A. headquarters in New York, in a few days. Invited to comment on the astonishing award of the naval cloth contract to an English mill while American mills are in the production doldrums, Mr. Hanley said, in part:

Calls Action Outrageous
"The action of the United States naval authorities in allowing foreign textile manufacturing concerns to compete in bidding for cotton cloth that is made here at home, particularly when so many thousands of our men and women textile workers are idle and the mills curtailing heavily or shutting down altogether, is actually outrageous. It doesn't seem true—that our government would allow such a proceeding in such hard times as we are having today."
"A matter of 'saving money,' some folks will say. Even if American cotton goods manufacturers cannot under any circumstances compete with foreign-made, cheap-labor and long-hour cloth constructions, and never could, yet at the same time, textile workers believe that it would have been better for the naval authorities to confine the reception of all bids on this khaki cloth contract to American industries and not accept bids from all over the world."

Manchester Up In Arms
"Ten thousand and more textile workers up in Manchester, part of them working but three and four days a week now, and with but few orders of cloth ahead of them to fill, are roundly denouncing the navy's quartermaster department heads for allowing foreign textile concerns to bid on American government contract offerings. Furthermore, this sending of an order for American military uniform cloth to English mills at this time appears to all textile workers as particularly untimely and a direct insult as well as a showing of utter disregard for the pitiable condition of the unemployed men and women whose only hope of a livelihood and a decent human existence depends upon American prosperity and American business."

Mr. Hanley described numerous local instances of extreme poverty existing today among expert and highly respected Lowell textile operatives with large families to support.

"During hard times, we always hear the cry about 'helping American business and American labor,'" continued the textile labor leader. "What about sending over to England a cloth contract that would have resulted in more employment on this side of the water if the bids had been confined to American industries? Is the action of the naval department helping American business when times are hard in America? Furthermore, this contract goes to a country where low-priced labor is the rule, where vast numbers of little children toil in industrial establishments long hours a day and have no pleasures in life."

"Of what use are the slogans, 'Trade At Home,' 'Buy American-made Goods and Keep Our Mills Running,' if we are not to practice what we preach. Millions of dollars' worth of foreign-made goods of almost every description are being bought by American importers today in foreign lands at very low prices and are being shipped to the United States on every steamship freight liner. These goods are being unloaded heavily today in American markets, competing with American-made goods and causing the shutting down of many American mills, because of the demand for the cheaply made goods from overseas."

Steady Flow From England
"Millions of yards of cotton textile goods made in English mills have reached New York harbor from English ports, since January 1. I am but one of hundreds of thousands of humble New England citizens who fondly hope that if the United States navy has any clothing contracts to let out for the equipment of American soldiers and marines, all bids for the same should be confined to territories within the boundaries of the United States. Lowell mills have to pay federal taxes. They have to abide by American laws. They are entitled to a better chance to capture some of the contracts that would give men and women textile workers employment when many are idle and in dire want."

"Will some one in the know, please tell us why our government goes so far as to completely ignore the cotton textile industries of New England? It is claimed by government investigators that the trouble with New England mills today is southern competition. Nothing is further from the truth. Southern competition has not greatly hampered New England cotton mills when there were any markets demanding the made goods."

Recommend Cancellation
"Cheaply-made foreign goods, textiles of all kinds, in the cutouts, worsteds and woollens, are flooding this country today."

"Foreign-made goods dumped in New York are sold at prices lower than can be quoted for materials of the same grade and quality made in American mills. Because of the ready sale of foreign goods and the promptness of American merchants to snap up the low-priced cloth bargains, our textile mills the country over are idling along, with little demand for our quality goods because of the surfeit of English-made textiles that are promptly grabbed up by the wholesalers and jobbers and turned over to the retail trader at handsome profits.

"It looks to me as if the navy department ought to cancel that British khaki suiting order, which I understand is for our famous 'devil-dog' marines, and let some of our idle mill operatives right here in Lowell take good care of it. And when I say good, I mean 'the best,' of course."

Her Dream Realized -

EVERY young woman like Mrs. Houk before her marriage dreams dreams and has visions of her ideal home with her husband, and healthy, happy children to make her joy complete.

But as time goes on her dreams are not realized, she has no children, her life is embittered and it is hard for her to be reconciled to the conditions as they exist.

To every young woman who is in this condition the following letter should bring hope and encouragement, as we know of numberless homes that have been blessed with children, just as this home was, after all hope had been abandoned.

Here Follows Mrs. Houk's Personal Letter:

"I was of a nervous disposition and always had a tired, worn-out feeling. I would get sharp pains in my side when walking too hard or when walking too much and sometimes I would have these awful dragged down feelings. I have had such troubles since I was a very young girl and had got very little result from all the medicine I had taken, and one doctor told me that I would never have children unless I had an operation. I had heard a great deal about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I thought I would try it. By the time I had finished the fourth bottle I noticed a change in my health. I went on a trip to California at this time and I kept on with the medicine. My health continued to improve and I now have a big, healthy baby boy six months old. I am not doing my own housework yet as I want to get good and strong first as it means a lot to my baby for me to be well while he is nursing. I have spoken highly of the Vegetable Compound to my friends, and I am more than willing for you to use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. JACK HOUK, 1915 Tennessee St., Lawrence, Kansas.

Burning Ship Sends Out S. O. S.

for the Ontario under full steam. The Calvin Austin reported heavy fog outside Boston and advised the Ontario to make for Providence or the Vineyard sound lightship.

All commercial radio stations were given the "G. H. T." signal to cease broadcasting. Communication with the distressed ship was made difficult by bad atmospheric conditions. The number of passengers aboard is unknown.

Capt. Bond in Command

BALTIMORE, May 8.—The steamship Ontario of the Merchants and Miners Transportation Co.'s fleet, reported after off Block Island, left Baltimore Tuesday for Boston. She was scheduled to stop at Newport News and Norfolk. She carried passengers and freight from Baltimore, which were augmented by passengers and freight taken on at the Virginia ports.

Captain William J. Bond, one of the veteran skippers of the Merchants and Miners Line, is in command.

Twenty-two passengers boarded the Ontario at Baltimore for Boston, according to the passenger list. They included T. H. Chamberlain, Mr. Lee and Mr. Colburn Arthur Brady and wife, Miss A. J. Collins, Miss M. E. Burns, E. R. Irwin and wife, and Miss E. Lydon all of Boston; Mrs. and Miss Hutchins of Worcester, Mass.; J. C. Dyer, Gloucester, Mass.; J. L. Cook, Richmond Va., and eight passengers from Baltimore. The company had no record of the passengers going aboard at Norfolk, officials said.

Brief advices received at the line's offices here stated that the fire broke out in the cargo to which it was confined and under control. No damage was done to the ship, it was stated. Another ship of the line was standing by. The Ontario carried a general cargo.

Fire Under Control

VINEYARD HAVENS, May 8.—A message from the coast guard cutter Aquashnet, received here today, said that the fire on the steamship Ontario was under control and that the steamer was proceeding for Boston. The Aquashnet, the message added, was not needed and the steamship Nantuxet had gone to the assistance of the Ontario.

STREET RAILWAY WILL FIGHT BUS LINE

The first step in the street railway company's opposition to the establishment of a bus line to operate between this city and Lawrence, as petitioned for at a recent meeting of the city council by the New England Motor Bus company, will be taken this evening at a meeting of local division employees called by the management.

The meeting will be held in the company's lobby in the Grovernor building and all street car operators, conductors and motormen who are not working this evening have been requested to be present. The meeting is scheduled for 8 o'clock and will be addressed by local executives of the road and possibly by Trustee Fred Crowley and other officials connected with the Boston office.

The purpose of the meeting, in so far as could be learned this morning, is to acquaint the employees of the local division just what serious effect on their work the establishment of the proposed bus line would have. If the men take the same opposition to the bus line as the company already has, it is believed they can swing into opposition sufficient numbers of persons to successfully oppose the application at the public hearing set for May 26.

HELD IN $300 IN LIQUOR CASE

Michael Weska of Williams street pleaded not guilty, in district court this morning, to illegally keeping liquor and was continued in $300 until May 27. He was arrested last night after Sergt. Other raids were made last night in Tyler and Adams streets are pending.

IMMIGRATION BILL

Conference Report Before
House—G. O. P. Leaders
Work for Approval

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Already under fire in both chambers because of its recommendation to postpone operation of the Japanese exclusion provision until March 1, 1925, the conference report on the immigration bill came before the house today with republican leaders working for its approval. Opponents of the postponement recommendation inserted at the insistence of President Coolidge, upon a delay sufficient to permit negotiation with Japan looking to abrogation of the gentlemen's agreement—were equally determined, however, to send the report back to conference.

The report was presented to the house yesterday by Chairman Johnson of the immigration committee with the announcement that it would be called up today for action. It was not submitted to the senate, congressional procedure requiring action first by the house, but was made the subject of a two hour debate yesterday in which the delay clause was criticized from both sides of the chamber. The conference, it was contended by opponents of the recommendation, exceeded their authority in fixing upon a date later than established by either chamber in the bills submitted to them for adjustment, but they were in doubt last night that a point of order to have the substitute thrown out on the basis of this argument would be sustained.

London's Comment

LONDON, May 8.—The Times commenting editorially on the American anti-Japanese immigration, says undoubtedly much of the friendly atmosphere created by the Washington treaty has been dispelled thereby. Dwelling upon the "fundamental causes of the antagonism" between the two nations and Japanese the paper continues:

It is to ignore the possibility of ultimate conflict in the Pacific, distant though it may be. Nobody will lightly put forward alarmist theories about the ultimate clash between the east and west.

"Upon the people of these islands (Great Britain) with their cherished friendship for Japan and their indissoluble ties with the United States rests perhaps the supreme responsibility for averting so incalculable a disaster, but the seeds of conflict are on either side of the Pacific ocean and it behooves this country to watch with incessant vigilance, every turn in the most tremendous problem confronting the world. The action of the United States marks a very significant stage in its development."

AFTER-SCHOOL MUSIC CLASSES

The annual regatta of the after-school music classes of the local elementary schools will be held next Wednesday afternoon in Liberty hall under the direction of Miss Gertrude O'Brien, assistant music director in the public schools.

The meeting of the Teachers' organization scheduled for next Wednesday, has been postponed to the following Wednesday, May 21, at 4 o'clock in the same hall. Supt. Hugh J. Mahoy of the school department will be the speaker at this meeting.

LIQUOR CASE HEARINGS AGAIN POSTPONED

An accumulation of cases which already have reached the total of 16, are pending for hearings before United States Commissioner Richard B. Walsh, who has been forced to postpone all scheduled sessions since April 18 because of the continuous appearance of federal enforcement agents before the federal grand jury. Today's session to be held at the local court house was postponed for the same reason.

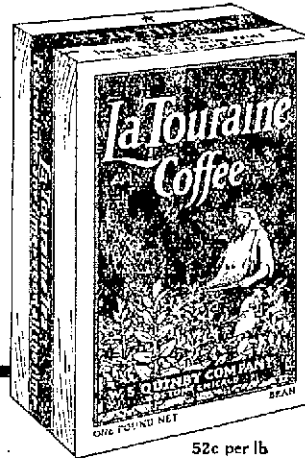

The next scheduled session has been set for May 14, to be followed by other sessions on the 15th, 16th, 21st and 22nd. By the 15th, it is believed the pending cases will reach 20 or more. Two Haverhill men, Constant Sorolinos and Charles Wallisall, both charged with illegal possession of liquor, appeared before Commissioner Walsh this morning at his office and gave bonds for their appearance for hearing at a later date.

TULIPS IN FULL BLOOM IN COLUMBUS PARK

Tulips in their glory, full-blooming in colors of rare combinations and with blossoms large and gracefully designed in their natural life, are attracting many visitors to Columbus park surrounding Immaculate Conception church, on East Merrimack street. Rarely has the good Brother Juras, caretaker of the wonderful gardens and unusual shrubbery of many far corners varieties secured better results from fall tulip-bulb planting, as is evident from an inspection of the smiling, colorful flower beds here and there about Columbus gardens today.

The large circular plot between the imposing granite steps on either side, is filled with tulips in flower. The colors are beautiful to behold, the blossoms very large and fairly indescribable.

A monster tulip bed in the center of the front lawn sparkles like a rainbow in the sunlight from above. There are red, orange, bright yellow and pale-colored striped tulips that appear from a distance to merge into a great round mass of colors that appear to be difficult to separate and properly distinguish. The tulip picture in this larger bed is almost an illusion, enhanced as it is by the newly-grown grass of the smooth, velvety lawn, which have already been closely mowed and cropped all around the edges of the walks and fences several times this spring.

The two flower-filled magnolia trees, growing upon opposite sides of Columbus gardens, have been the delight of passersby for several weeks. They are not large trees, but will be some day, because of the tender care given them in their youth days of the "shoots" period, when they were set out very carefully and tended.

The young magnolias never bloomed any better than they did this season. What will the picture be when these two natural wonders of the tree family attain heights of 30 or more feet in the air and every limb is covered with magnolia blossoms to welcome the month of April and spring?

All of the shrubbery, sidewalk bordering plants of several American and foreign varieties, rare and wonderful in their contribution to the artistic nature of lovers of plant and floral offerings of picturesque beauty, is in excellent physical condition this spring. The winter was not severe and Columbus park gardens will greatly benefit thereby this season.

M. E. CONFERENCE

Admission of Women to the Pulpits Considered at
Today's Session

SPRINGFIELD, May 8.—Having voted yesterday to end the 50 years schism between the north and south Methodist churches, the delegates to the Methodist Episcopal general conference expected today to consider another change from the past—the admission of women to the pulpits. A report of the commission on the ordination of women had been made in order of the day, and an expert discussion of the issue was anticipated. This will be the second time in the conference that women have asked for a place with the men in important functions of the church. A resolution ordering the placing of women on church boards was introduced last Monday by Mrs. M. Madeleine Southard of Winfield, Kan., and will be reported later by the standing committee on temporal economy. The delegates will be waiting news from Washington and from Nashville, Tenn. A conference committee was to present at Washington petitions to President Coolidge against Japanese exclusion and to the senate judiciary committee against modification of the Volstead enforcement act. At Nashville the southern churches college of bishops will, according to an agreed plan call a special conference of their church to consider ratification of the plan for unification. The commission on the ordination of women and their admission to annual conferences, was appointed by the general conference of 1920 at Des Moines, Ia., with instructions to investigate and report to the 1924 conference. Southern Bishops Meet NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 8.—A special session of the Southern Methodist College of Bishops is expected to be held here today or tomorrow to consider the action on unification taken by the Methodist Episcopal conference yesterday at Springfield, Mass., although Senior Bishop W. A. Candler, has not yet issued a call for such a meeting. Official notification of the northern conference resolution is awaited here, it is said, before definite action will be taken by the southern bishops. By the minutes of the last general conference of the Methodist church south, the college of bishops is "empowered and instructed to call the special session of our general conference when a plan for unification is endorsed by two thirds vote of each (northern and southern) and approved by the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church." All conditions precedent to the calling of the general conference by the college of bishops are fulfilled, it was pointed out. Its unification it was pointed out in Methodist circles here, the church would have a total membership of 8,400,000. The northern Methodist churches now have 3,585,890 members and the southern 2,045,277. Minor branches make up the remainder.

HAMILTON NOT TO RUN ON SHEETINGS

Reports circulating yesterday in certain quarters of the textile stock investment world, to the effect that general blanket production at the Hamilton Manufacturing company's plant in this city would cease in the future, and machinery changed over to prepare for extensive production of sheetings, were denied yesterday by a corporation official in Boston. In response to a query made by The Sun, Mr. Arthur R. Sharp, treasurer of the Hamilton company, whose executive offices are located at 90 Chauncy street, Boston, replied as follows: "There is no foundation to the rumor that the Hamilton company is to begin running on sheetings." The local plant on Jackson street is still operating on regular lines but under heavily curtailed time conditions, the rule in force for many weeks past.

INDEPENDENCE IN 20 YEARS FOR PHILIPPINES

WASHINGTON, May 8.—A promise of greater autonomy at once and independence in 20 years, is held out to the Philippines in a bill favorably reported to the house by its insular affairs committee. Although no place has yet been assigned to it on the legislative program friends of the measure are expected to press for a vote on it before congressional adjournment.

The bill introduced by Representative Fairchild, republican, Indiana, with a provision for an independence plebiscite in the islands at the end of 20 years, was amended by the committee late yesterday to eliminate the plebiscite requirement and provide for automatic recognition of the Philippines as an independent nation and withdrawal of American troops at the expiration of 20 years.

A "commonwealth of the Philippines" meanwhile, would be set up after the drafting of a constitution by a constitutional convention and its acceptance by the qualified electors of the Philippines and during the 20 years of remaining allegiance to the United States. Its acts would be subject to review only by the president.

OPPOSE MODIFICATION OF PROHIBITION LAW

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Modification of the prohibition law was vigorously opposed today by a delegation headed by Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, which appeared before the senate judiciary committee. The committee has under consideration a number of bills which would permit 2.5 per cent. beer.

"Vox of prohibition use these bills as camouflage to make impossible the enforcement of the 18th amendment," Wheeler charged.

At the opening of the hearing, Francis C. Harley, chairman of the National liberal alliance, former mayor of New York City, wound up the argument for modification, declaring he spoke for seven million people who registered their ballots through a referendum of his organization. If allowed to vote on the question, the vast majority of the people of the whole country, he said, would vote for modification.

A tilt occurred between Representative Foster, republican, Ohio, and the witness, over the voting on modification in Michigan and Ohio. Foster charged that the statement that ballots had been taken by boxes placed in churches, Harley was authorized to submit evidence later.

Mrs. Ella A. Hoole, the first witness for the drys, representing the Women's Christian Temperance union, asserted the belief that the bills before the committee could be traced to the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, but when this statement was questioned by Representative Perlman, republican, New York, she contended that she had no direct evidence.

SITUATION IN RUHR IS CONSIDERED SERIOUS

BERLIN, May 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The situation in the Ruhr, where 200,000 miners are out because of their refusal to meet the demand of the owners for the addition of an hour to the working day, is admitted by serious. Government circles evidently are deeply concerned, and the hasty departure for the Ruhr last night of Labor Minister Braun to make a personal effort to settle the conflict emphasizes the gravity of conditions.

The entire German press is apprehensive that the conflict may have untoward consequences both as regards German internal conditions and foreign policy. Fear of disturbances is expressed, it being pointed out that the Ruhr miners are lacking in financial reserves and may be driven by hunger to plunder.

The Social Vorwarts this morning charges the operators with trying to hide behind their obligations under the agreement with the occupational regime in an effort to gain advantages over the workers.

As regards the merits of the miners' position, the Bochum Miners' Federation points out that the demand for a workday of not more than seven hours under ground, is valid because a long time is required by most of the miners to reach their places of work, due to the lack of housing facilities, and that this condition means in actuality a 10 to 12 hour working day.

To Keep Up Deliveries

DUESSELDORF, May 8.—The "All-German" organization with which the mine owners have an agreement for reparation deliveries, is insisting that these deliveries must be kept up. It threatens the seizure of additional mines unless there is a speedy settlement of the labor trouble.

HIGH HONORS FOR GIRLS OF PEASANT ORIGIN

MOSCOW, May 8.—Two girls of peasant origin, Milla Rouba and Milla Ouzantsova, have qualified for high honors at the Red army military academy. Milla Rouba is a former Moscow working girl and Milla Ouzantsova was a factory hand.

Both girls participated in the war against the counter-revolutionary armies, the former commanding a detachment of Red troops, and each gained distinction for gallantry and resource. They wear the regulation army officer's uniform, including scarlet breeches and high boots.

WOMEN OPPOSE DR. BUTLER'S VIEWS

NEW YORK, May 8.—The controversy which Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, started by his address recently before the Missouri society, had a vigorous echo today in a resolution adopted by the Missouri Woman's club, commending the stand in opposition to that of Dr. Butler taken by Dr. Stratton D. Brooks of the University of Missouri.

While deploring the controversy, the members of the women's club expressed their great admiration for Dr. Brooks' attitude.

serted the belief that the bills before the committee could be traced to the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, but when this statement was questioned by Representative Perlman, republican, New York, she contended that she had no direct evidence.

SEC. HUGHES TO SPEAK AT BROWN UNIVERSITY

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 8. Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes has accepted an invitation to speak for the alumni of Brown university at the dinner to be given by the university corporation, the faculty and the associate alumni to President W. H. P. Faunce of Brown in this city Friday, May 16.

The dinner is in honor of the 25th anniversary of the election of Dr. Faunce as president of Brown. Mr. Hughes was graduated from Brown one year later than Dr. Faunce. Both belonged to the same fraternity in their undergraduate days. Besides Mr. Hughes the speakers will be Rev. Dr. John M. English of Newton Theological institution, who will represent the university corporation, and Prof. Walter G. Everett of the Brown faculty.

Dr. Faunce was elected president of Brown, June 3, 1899, coming to the university from the Fifth Avenue Baptist church of New York. Under his administration, Brown has more than doubled in size, increased its endowment manifold and at the same time raised its scholarly requirements so that they are now as strict as those of any college or university in the country.

COOLIDGE ABANDONS MORNING WALKS

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The steadily increasing pressure of work at the capitol incident to the approach of a congressional adjournment, has brought his resignation at the White House, the virtual abandonment by President Coolidge of the early morning walks he has been accustomed to take regularly since he entered the White House.

The president during the winter left the White House almost every morning for a half-mile walk before breakfast. Although still practicing the habit of arising early, Mr. Coolidge recently has been foregoing the walks in order to spend the time in his study going over matters coming before him in connection with completed or soon to be completed legislation. His only exercise nowadays is a long walk in the evening just after he leaves his office for the day.

WIFE OF GEN. BOOTH RESCUED

NEW YORK, May 8.—Mrs. Maude Ballington Booth, wife of General Ballington Booth, head of the Volunteers of America, was rescued early today by customs guards after she had been marooned all night on Fire Island. She had gone to the island yesterday from her home at Blue Point and was prevented from returning in her motor boat first by the outgoing tide which left the craft high and dry, and then by dense fog which came up after dark.

Intersectional Baseball in Majors Gets Under Way—Roy and Thomas Ready for Bout

EHMKE SHADES JOHNSON IN PITCHERS' BATTLE AND RED SOX WIN

Triple by John Collins Important Factor in Boston Victory Over Washington—Sisler Leads Browns to Victory Over Indians

NEW YORK, May 9.—Intersectional baseball in the major league begins today on a limited scale with Cleveland and St. Louis of the American league in the east and the Boston Nationals in the west.

By tomorrow the movement will have been completed and until May 26 all National league games will be played in the west and all American league contests in the east.

Italy, postponing all but two meetings yesterday, aided the schedule makers by permitting early leave-taking for the traveling teams. In the American league, Boston defeated Washington, 4 to 2 and St. Louis won from Cleveland, 4 to 1.

Manager George Sisler was the prominent figure of the Brown triumph. He scored the first run in the first inning after sinking and stealing second base. His home run in the fifth inning drove Ellerbe before him. Wingard, a recruit, held Cleveland to six hits.

Howard Ehmke and Walter Johnson engaged in a pitching duel decided adversely for the Washington Iron man, as Boston converted his three passes into runs. A triple by John Collins in the first inning tallied two. Johnson also hit two men. Ehmke was steady.

All of the bouts were scheduled to go three rounds.

BOXING BOUTS TONIGHT

Roy and Thomas Reported in Perfect Condition for Moody Club Main Event

With both boys reported in perfect condition after a careful period of diligent training, fans may expect a hectic battle when Leo Kid Roy, champion featherweight of Canada and Tony Thomas of New Bedford, former N. E. bantamweight champion meet in the main event of the Moody club card in Crescent rink tonight.

The battle has created considerable interest throughout the city. Roy, a former Lowell boy, got his pugilistic start in the Moody club ring a few years ago. At that time he was known as George Parker. He first appeared in the six round preliminaries, but soon graduated to the semi-final ranks. Here he enjoyed continued success. Then he went to Canada. He continued to advance and gradually fought his way into the main event class. He soon got a chance at the Canadian featherweight champion and he succeeded in winning the title. He lost it, but shortly after regained possession of the championship belt, which he retains today.

He came back to Lowell a few months ago and showed just what he suggested by knocking Terry Parker, a local fighter, in a few weeks ago he fought in Man-

ALL BOYS ARE ELIGIBLE

Big Athletic Meet to Be Held in Connection With Boys' Week Here

Announcement was made this morning that, in connection with Lowell's public celebration of Boys' week, May 16, 17 and 18, an athletic meet is to be held on the South common on the morning of Saturday, May 17, to which all boys of the city are eligible.

A happy selection for referee is the chester, losing a hair-line decision to Terry Martin of Providence.

The Manchester battle figures indirectly in the coming setto. Tony Thomas who will be the party of the second part in tonight's feature, has been training all week with Terry Martin, now in Boston under Alice Maclean's management. As a result he feels he has acquired knowledge that will aid him against Roy. On the other hand Roy, who is anxious to get another crack at Martin to wipe out the black mark against his record, will strive to score decisively over Thomas and then open negotiations for a return engagement with the Rhode Island boy.

The other bouts on tonight's card look good. In the semi-final Benny Selsam will meet Young Leonard of Boston. There will also be two six-round preliminaries, the first of which will go on at 8.30 o'clock.

appointment of Carl L. Schrader, state supervisor of physical education. The athletic event will be in charge of Arthur Sullivan, Donald MacIntyre and George Sturtevant, assisted by a large number of officials, who will take charge of the various contests.

Three different events, all sure to prove highly attractive to the boys' week celebrators and athletic program participants, as well as the multitude of spectators expected to watch the performances, will be run at the same time and according to the following schedule:

Events for boys—5 to 12 years of age: 30-yard dash, potato race.

Boys—12 to 15 years of age: 50-yard dash, 140-yard dash, high jump, running broad jump.

Events for boys—15 to 18 years of age: 100-yard dash, 1/2-mile run, high jump, broad jump.

Relay races, 4 men to team—1, Junior high; 2, grammar schools; 3, parochial schools.

Special 100-yard dash for city championship.

The enthusiastic athletic committee working solely to make the boys' week event a genuine attraction and success, consists of the following:

James Liston, Lowell high school; James P. Conway, American Legion; Thomas Higgins, Y.M.C.A.; Clarence Towne, Y.M.C.A.; Bruce Douglas, Y.M.C.A.; William Walsh, Broadway club; John Stahoney, C.Y.M.C.; Daniel O'Connor, C.M. Cadets; Timothy Laveahan, Lowell high school; James O'Day, South End club; William Sullivan, Junior Twilight league.

The entry cards for these various events will be distributed to the schools within a day or two. They are being contributed by a member of the Lowell Rotary club.

More than twice as many Elcho cigars were sold during the first four months of this year than in the same period last year. This record is attributed to the fact that the Elcho is made by hand from a choice long Havana filler, which the smokers have been quick to appreciate. The consistent increase in sales for several months has necessitated the use of larger factory space. Ask any cigar maker about the quality of the Elcho cigar.—Advt.

BIG MEET POSSIBILITY

Committee of Citizens Discusses Raising of Money for Running Track

Noted track stars may come to Lowell on June 21, when a championship meet will be staged at Alumni field for the benefit of the high school athletic club. At a meeting of the Lowell business men held yesterday afternoon at 4:30 in the chamber of commerce, with members of the High School Alumni association also present, the main topic considered was a possible source of raising money to fully cover the track-building expenses. School athletes from many cities and towns would be invited to come to Lowell and compete in the athletic contests to be arranged. Faculty Manager Conway of the high school expects to hear from Medford high school in a few days, anticipating that the athletes from that institution would prove a great attraction alone. The new track at Alumni field will be ready in about eight weeks and will cost more than $2000, it is expected. No more than $300 has been raised thus far, and only 102 subscriptions of one dollar have been brought in. The working committee now hopes that by a lively field day in June, with prominent high school athletes on hand to show their wares in exciting contests of the track and field, enough money can be raised to pay all bills incurred.

CAPT. REYNOLDS TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Capt. James Reynolds will attend the annual convention of the American Water Works association, to be held in New York city on May 19. The trip was authorized yesterday by the board of public service after Supt. Robert W. Gardner declined first opportunity to attend.

QUINTEN ROMARO MEETS FLOYD JOHNSON

NEW YORK, May 8.—Quinten Romaro of Chile tonight has a claim to the world heavyweight title, as he is scheduled to fight Floyd Johnson of Pennsylvania in the United States upon members of the pugilistic royalty of South America. The heir presumptive to the position in heavyweight circles, distinguished by Luis Firpo of Buenos Aires, gives for 10 rounds to a decision with Floyd Johnson of Iowa. Experts predict that the plain fighter from the Hawkeye state will crush Quinten and his aspirations. The bout is the first of an elimination series planned by Tex Rickard to select a trial horse for Harry Wills before his contemplated battle with Champsey of New York on Sept. 6. Either Romaro or Johnson will be matched with Jack B. Egan on June 21, and the winner of that bout probably will meet Wills at an undetermined date. Morris Schaffer of Omaha and Harry Marrons of Jersey City, next in an eight-round semi-final, and Stansell, former amateur heavyweight champion, clashes with Tommy Gardner, a new comer from the coast in a six-round heavyweight preliminary.

BOYS' CLUB WINS CITY LEAGUE HONORS

The Boys' club defeated the Eagles, 22 to 15, in a hotly-contested game last evening in the Y.M.C.A. gym and won the City Basketball league championship. The Eagles put up a hard fight throughout the game but then toward the end and the Boys' club team, through superior play, forced into the lead and held it.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

Continued. Pitchers: Naylor, McGowan, Curtin, MacDonnell, King, Bowers, Locant, and Placemans. The Pirates (games) are wanted with other 12-14-year-old teams. Call 4488-W and ask for Tom.

The Cardinals accept the challenge of the Pirates. Juniors and would like to have the manager of that team call 6656-M.

The American Juniors accept the challenge of the Cardinals. The Cardinals will play the American Juniors on May 17 for a 50-cent ball. The Cardinals will be on the mound for the Americans. The rest of the lineup will be as follows: Royan c, Lebrle 1b, Derazzo 2b, Donovan ss, Selgit 3b, Clemas lf, Lison rf, Baril cf.

The Acre Independents have organized for the season. Last year this team was known as the Willie Stars, but decided to change their name this season. The team is under the management of Bert Durkin, who managed the St. Anne's basketball team. Games are wanted with the St. Peter's Cadets, Butlers, Belmonts, Tyler A.C., Kittredge's Pats and Merchants. The manager has directed Tariff, Richards, Coulter, Binard, Normandin, Bell, Boyce, Bernard, Hessian, Plouffe, Chase, Daves, White and Nowak. These men will play the St. Anne's practice game on the North common Monday evening.

The Cardinal Midgets will play the Elks in the first of a three-game series a week from Saturday for a 50-cent ball each side. The Cardinal Midgets claim the 12-14-year-old championship and all disputing this claim are requested to get in touch with Manager Perrault at 100 Lakeview avenue. The Midgets have already annexed 14 straight wins with the following lineup: Betens c, Mercier 1b, Falcoul 2b, Capt. Perrault 3b, Swift ss, The 3b, Vandette lf, Lynch cf, Mercer rf.

In reply to a statement by the Cloverleaf Juniors to the effect that they did not consider the defeat administered to them by the Belknap Pirates a just one, as they said the Pirates exceeded the 11-12-year-old age limit, the Pirates wish to admit that they were older than the Cloverleafs, but before the game they were given to understand that they were to play 12-14-year-old team. However, the Pirates are willing to give the game as a forfeit to the Cloverleafs if they can find any one man in the lineup over 14 years of age. The Cloverleafs, in the Pirates' estimation, are a 12-14-year-old team. All outfits desiring games call 6656-M.

The Riversides would like to hear from the National Indians, Chisox and other teams. Answer through this paper. The lineup is: Baron c, Mello p, Shorty 1b, Joe 2b, Butler 3b, Gilbado ss, Stanley rf, Billy cf and Johnny lf. The Yankees have organized for their third season and would like to hear from the Belknap, Cardinals, Belknap, Celtics and other fast teams in and around Lowell. Call 4680 or see the manager at Kittredge's alleys.

FAMOUS ST. JAMES NOT TO RUN IN PREAKNESS

BALTIMORE, Md., May 8.—The announcement yesterday that George D. Widener's famous St. James would not run in the Preakness at Pimlico

next Monday, came as a decided jolt to race followers, and the elimination of this favorite left fans rasting about for another candidate for the Maryland classic. The victory of Mad Play at Jamaica yesterday threw the Sheldahl colt into the limelight, and Bud Fisher's Billy McWhorter, by winning the Pimlico Oaks, carrying the same weight which would be assigned here in the Preakness, also stepped a bit into the foreground. Sunspot, one of Gifford Cochran's horses, did a mile in 1:12.5 to win at Old Hill Ten yesterday, while Mr. Stitt, considered another possible Bud Fisher candidate, came in third in the same race. Indications at present point to a field of about 16 or 17 starters.

TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY MISSING FROM HOME

John Cashman, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cashman of 25 Bassett street, has been missing from his home since last Tuesday, and his parents were anxious to learn of his whereabouts. The youngster attended St. Peter's school until Tuesday afternoon when he disappeared. He is described as being small, for his age, round faced, with brown hair and brown eyes. The police have been notified of his unexplained absence from home, and officers have been instructed to be on the lookout for him. Any information leading to his recovery will be deeply appreciated by his parents.

CANADIAN WRESTLING CHAMPION BEATEN

WINNIPEG, Man., May 9.—With his Canadian title at stake, and a chance to meet Strangler Lewis for the world's championship, Jack Taylor, Canadian heavyweight wrestling champion, went down to defeat when he was beaten by Dick Daviscourt of Rochester, N. Y., after a fast match here last night. Taylor won the first fall with a toe-hold after 24 minutes, 4 seconds, but Daviscourt played a great comeback to win the final two falls, with headlocks. Taylor could not fathom Daviscourt's tortuous headlocks. Daviscourt will meet Lewis in a title match here May 24.

and Ernest Latham, Slavin, Welch, Forrest and Fred Vinal. The entry list now has reached the record total of 304, representing 29 schools, which also is a new record for the carnival. It is doubtful if any better field has ever entered a Harvard school has met. University school of Cleveland, Ohio, has entered two athletes and practically every big preparatory and high school in New England will show the best of its talent. Andover academy, with 27 men entered, is favored to win the meet for the third successive year, but will find the going hard. Exeter has big squad ready for action and Worcester, Cushing and Dean academies also will provide top notch competition.

The complete list of schools who will have representatives in the meet follows: Andover, Exeter, Worcester Academy, Cushing Academy, Dean Academy, Huntington school, Boston English High, Boston Trade, Lynn English High, Lynn Classical High, Somerville High, Rhode Technical School, Cambridge High and Latin, Rhode Island, Lowell Clinton School of Boston, Hyde Park High, Lawrence High, Lowell High, St. John's Prep, Stoneham High, Walpole High, University School of Cleveland, Milton Academy, Bedford High, Pinkerton Academy, Quincy High, Newton High and Allen-Chalmers School.

Among the speakers will be Head Coach Bob Fisher of the Harvard football team, William J. Bingham, Major Gen. A. W. Brewster and Isthrop Willington.

The Lowell boys will leave for Cambridge in the middle of the forenoon and will be entertained at luncheon at the university before the meet.

TEAMSTERS ASK FOR NEW HORSES

Tell Public Service Board
They Are Ashamed to Pick Up Reins

Five New Pairs to Be Bought
to Replace Aged and
Weak Equines

The board of public service yesterday voted to buy five pairs of horses for the street department. This action was taken after a committee of three teamsters, with Michael Regan as spokesman, appeared before the board to ask that new horses be purchased for the department.

The men stated that they are ashamed to drive many of the horses now in service and that it is highly doubtful if any of the ancient dabbies in the department have sufficient strength to pull a loaded wagon up the East Merrimack street grade. "People on the street give us when we drive almost any of the present horses," said Mr. Regan. "There haven't been any horses bought for the street department since 1914. We are driving some old horses with hardly strength enough to pull even a light load. Some of them are fire department pensioners that had outlived most of their usefulness before we got hold of them at all."

Mr. Meloy took occasion to commend the men for coming before the board and bringing the matter to official attention. Chairman Murphy found that of the $25,000 asked for the horses and about $5000 has been spent for a sweeper. He moved to purchase five pairs of horses and it was carried unanimously.

At a meeting of the board only a few weeks ago it was voted to buy five pairs of horses for the ashes and waste department and to despatch some of the old-timers in the employ of the department.

'Twas Tough Old Night

Last Night's Northeaster Was Accompanied by Thunder
and Lightning

"De Win' She Blow Lak
Hurricane—Bimeby She Blow Some More"

Northeasters come and go, in all seasons of the year, with equal blustering tactics and usually severe wind gales that many times do considerable damage in many cities and country-sides.

Last night, one of those northeasters, accompanied by thunder and lightning, made itself felt with an exhibition of one of the "biggest blows" recorded for some time past. Weather watchers say it must have reached 60 miles an hour late last night and during the early hours of this morning.

For a near record-breaker in big winds, the storm was without many damage tringes, so far as reported. The park department had nothing to report from the recreation places where the shade trees and shrubbery offer their welcome and succor. The wind may have danced through Lowell at a 60 gait or more, but it was not ravenous in its passage through the town that usually suffers the destruction of trees and trees limbs, fallen telephone or telegraph poles, broken street lights and other damages attributed to the elements driven by old King Storm.

Prognosticators are bulleting "Rain tonight and Saturday." Fresh easterly winds are due, the weather vane showing a drift toward straight east today. Clearing weather is hoped for by Saturday afternoon and the happiest prediction of all in today's prophetic rendering: Sunday will be fair.

Last night's weather charts showed an extensive area of low barometric pressure at that time, embracing practically all districts from the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic coast. Rains were general during the last 48 hours east of Mark Twain's favorite transportation route. Temperatures are sub-normal generally east of the Rocky mountains. California, of course, never reports anything but normal, sunshiny weather, so reports from that state are not called for.

LOCAL CASES IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

The cross action of contract involving Ambrose Creamer and Francis M. and Rose A. Maguire, which has been on trial in superior court here for the past two days, was furnished early this afternoon and was given to the jury by Judge Greenhalge.

The next case on the trial list is that of George D. Glatas, local real estate broker, against Fred Tepfer et al., an action of contract whereby the plaintiff seeks to recover $200 alleged to be owed him by defendants as a real estate commission. Glatas claims he was employed by the defendants to find a purchaser for a lodging-house owned by them in Middlesex street and was promised the usual commission. He states he found a purchaser, but that the defendants refused to pay him a commission. Qua, Howard and Rogers for the plaintiff and Maurice Marlofsky for the defendants.

NOT TO ALTER DIVORCE

LAW IN IRELAND

DUBLIN, May 9.—Notwithstanding intimations to the contrary, it is authoritatively stated that the Dublin government has no intention of altering the law so as to provide for complete divorce. A number of persons, desiring to remarry after having obtained judicial separations from the Irish courts, achieved that end by promoting private legislation in the British parliament through the house of lords, and others now are appealing to the Free State parliament to pass private legislation in the same way. A number of bills have been lodged for this purpose, but they are held up pending inquiry into the whole matter by a joint committee of the Dail and senate.

Thomas Toohay, John Kelley, Thos. F. Quenley, John P. Fogarty and Michael Cronin, who were "rounded up" on the South common by Officer Clyde Aldrich yesterday, all pleaded guilty to drunkenness in district court today. Consequently, he sentenced Fogarty to two months in the house of correction, and each of the other four to one month.

Drunkenness and Trespassing

Herlihy were taken in by Special Officer Howard Shindens of the Boston & Maine railroad, and Officer Aldrich, the former two charged with drunkenness and trespassing, and the latter simply with trespassing. John Donahue was given a suspended sentence of three months in the house of correction for drunkenness, and fined $10 for trespassing. Frank Donahue was sentenced to three months for drunkenness. The trespassing case was filed. The third defendant, Herlihy, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 for drunkenness.

FOR FINAL VOTE

Advocates of Farm Relief Legislation Want to Include McNary-Haugen Bill

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Pressing toward a final vote on the revenue bill, the senate today faced a stumbling block in the plan of advocates of farm relief legislation to tack the McNary-Haugen bill to the measure as an amendment.

Two attempts made during a 10-hour session yesterday to restrict debate on the bill today and agree to vote on it for passage at 5 o'clock were blocked by objections from both sides of the chamber.

All of the committee amendments were disposed of yesterday with adoption of a gift tax, one of the two new taxes in the bill. That imposed on 5th June sets of 10 per cent is the other.

The three outstanding changes made in the bill by the senate, all with the vote of the democratic-republican insurance coalition, all against the wishes of the organization republicans and the expressed desire of President Coolidge are:

Substitution of an income tax schedule calling for less of a reduction on surtaxes and a greater cut in normal rates than proposed in either the house bill or by Secretary Mellon.

Opening of tax returns and the hearings of the proposed board of tax appeals to the house.

Substitution of a graduated tax on undistributed profits of corporations for the present flat corporation levy.

Around these provisions, if finally accepted will center the fight in conference with the house and the question of party supremacy.

DISMISSAL OF SUIT TO CANCEL

Cases Asked by Doheny Companies

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—Dismissal of the government's suit to cancel naval oil reserve leases granted to the Doheny interests in Kern county, California, was asked in an answer filed in federal court yesterday by attorneys for the Pan-American Petroleum Co. and the Pan-Petroleum & Transport Co.

Denying categorically all allegations of illegality and conspiracy in connection with the leases the answer stated that expenditures of approximately $10,000,000 have been made or provided for by the defendant companies in order to carry out their contracts with the government and points out that if these are annulled, great depreciation would result.

CALL FOR "MASTER RECORD"
WASHINGTON, May 9.—Because of assertions of a "serious lack of coordination in the records" of the shipping board and Fleet corporation relating to valid assets, the house committee investigating the board today adopted a resolution directing the preparation of a "master record" showing a complete history of each financial transaction.

TOKIO PAPER SAYS SITUATION GRAVE

TOKIO, May 8.—(By the Associated Press).—Although the conference of the American congress have agreed to propose the postponement of the effective date of provisions in the "molestation bill" excluding Japanese until March 1925, the situation remains grave in the opinion of the Yoroku Chohin, a Jingo newspaper.

"The purpose of proposed postponement," the paper says, "is to avoid adverse effect on the presidential election. However, the race conflict is actually already in progress."

"Japan cannot conclude a treaty which humiliates her, therefore Japan and the United States may become nations without treaty relations. It is high time for Japan to unite other Asiatic nations to face the situation, exclude America from the Orient and make her understand that her discrimination is unjust."

"There is nothing left but to await the awakening of the Japanese nation."

SAYS KHAKI CONTRACT NOT AWARDED

The agitation over the award of a contract for a half million yards of cotton khaki to Spinner & Co. of Manchester, England, in preference to the Amoskeag Manufacturing company of Manchester, N. H., last ground today with the statement from the navy department that no such contract has been awarded. With a statement to this effect is an official denial that
schedules have been issued asking bids
for the furnishing of this quantity of material. The navy department is at a loss to know how the story started.

According to navy department purchasing officials, the only recent purchases for this class of material were
a few lots of 500-yard pieces that have been made into garments and
issued to various stations for experimental purposes. The samples purchased were all of a domestic make.
Manchester, N. H., textile executives
said today that the contract award to Spinner & Co. was made a year ago
but has just become generally known to the public. It is known that Spinner & Co. was in June, 1923, given a contract for 500,000 yards of cotton khaki cloth. It is understood that since then the navy department has made a ruling not to make awards to other than domestic firms.

Liner Orca and Steamer
Porsanger Collide 50 Miles

Above Water Line

FATHER POINT, Que., May 8.—The
Royal Mail Steam Packet liner Orca, bound with passengers from Europe to
New York by way of Quebec where she landed passengers yesterday, collided
last night in a dense fog about 50
miles east of here with the steamer
Porsanger.

The Orca was hit amidships and a
Porsanger was crumpled and her stem
twisted. No one was injured and it was stated the liners were able to proceed.

The Porsanger, a Norwegian freight-
er, was on her way from Hamburg,
via Shields, Eng., for Montreal. The Orca, of 16,000 tons, was said to be taking water but able to control the intake with her pumps. The Porsanger is a 4267 ton vessel.

The Orca which left Southampton
April 23, had discharged most of her passengers at Quebec and was on her
to New York.

Damage to the Porsanger, while said
to be considerable, was understood to be well above the water line and not

"SUN CURE" QUARTZ PERFECTED

"Fused quartz," the most transparent solid material man has ever known—a substance capable of making light travel in circles or around corners—is the revolutionary discovery now holding first place in scientific interest. Unlike glass it permits the passage of ultra-violet and infra-red rays, thus permitting the "sun cure" for various diseases, without exposing the patient to cold air. The picture shows Dr. Edward Berry with two of his aides in the discovery, examining a circular quartz lens at the General Electric company laboratory, Lynn, Mass. P. K. Devers and Wallace Wright are the others in the picture (left to right.)

Features of These Better Carriages

The models are very distinctive and, we think, the most attractive carriages made. Nearly all of them have the turntable gear that allows you to turn the body of the carriage around so that baby can face you as you wheel him along.
They have perfect balance, are very easy to handle and the Hulmann Sleeper has foot wells and adjustable backs that make a small carriage much more roomy than other makes.
Be sure of one thing—Do not buy a carriage with the push bars fastened to the body of the carriage. They should fasten on the axle or they will soon cramp the Springs and run one-sided.

GULBRANSEN

The Gulbransen Registering Piano of today is the world's latest achievement in musical instruments.

It stands absolutely alone in the artistic results it produces and the ease with which they are obtained. It is played by music roll and pedals, as are other instruments of its type, but there the similarity ends.

The Gulbransen registers one's exact "touch" on each note. It can be played with all the feeling, the life, the delicacy of the very finest piano music you ever listened to.

You can graduate the exact shading of each note, not just play it loudly or softly, but graduate the tones just as the most accomplished pianists do in hand-playing.

Ordinary hand-playing can no longer be compared with Gulbransen-playing. Only the most artistic piano playing can be placed in the same class as correct playing of the Gulbransen.

Because these are facts, we are insistent that the Gulbransen be not confused with other instruments of the same type.
We challenge investigation of it as an Easy-to-Play Registering Piano that registers your exact touch, that registers your time, that registers your expression.

Mail This and we will tell you on what easy terms you can buy a Gulbransen.

King and Queen of Rumania Received With Military Honors at Geneva Today

GENEVA, May 9.—(By the Associated Press).—Coming especially to pay an official visit to the League of Nations, King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Rumania arrived here today and were received with military honors at the railway station. Their majesties were acclaimed by the populace as they drove to the city hall. After the municipal reception they proceeded to the palace of the league and then to the International labor bureau.

Simultaneous with the arrival of the royal party, the Geneva newspapers were printing despatches received via Germany reporting that soviet troops were preparing an attack against Rumania on account of the dispute over Bessarabia, that War Minister Trotsky had reached Kamenetz-Podolsk to inspect the soviet army and that skirmishes had occurred in the region of the Dniester between Russian and Rumanian sentinels.

The visit of the king and queen is interpreted by the Geneva press as an answer to those who accuse Rumania of being imperialistic, nationalist and militaristic, their call upon the league being interpreted by the newspapers as inspired by a desire to show that Rumania seeks only to collaborate with the league for European consolidation and the maintenance of peace, and to demonstrate her determination to war for the development of the ideals of the league.

FOR ANTI-PROHIBITION
PLANK IN PLATFORM

NEW YORK, May 9.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university and a delegate to the republican national convention in Cleveland next month, has come out squarely for the insertion of an anti-prohibition plank in the 1924 G.O.P. platform.

His declaration that his party must take that step as "the only way to get back to sound constitutional government" is the latest phase of the nationwide controversy he stirred up ten days ago when, in a speech before New York members of the Missouri society, he launched a vigorous attack on the Volstead act, the 18th amendment and liquor law enforcement generally.

The Columbia president, in a statement yesterday, added that the republican party stood in danger of losing 11 states in the coming presidential election, if it did not take a decisive stand against the existing prohibition situation. His remarks also were construed as a challenge to the anti-Saloon league which he attacked in his recent society talk.

SHIP BOARD YIELDS TO NUMEROUS PROTESTS

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Responding to numerous protests from exporters, importers and others, the shipping board has withdrawn its certification that adequate American tonnage is in operation to warrant enforcement of the preferential rail and ocean rate provision embodied in section 28 of the Merchant Marine act. This action automatically requires the interstate commerce commission to rescind, based on the certification, declaring the section effective after June 30.

The board's decision was made late yesterday by a vote of 4 to 3 in the form of a resolution based largely on a memorandum by the co-ordination committee on rail and water rates appointed by President Coolidge with Secretary Hoover as chairman. The opposition came from the democratic members, who earlier in the day had been defeated by a like vote on a proposal by Commissioner Thompson for modification of the scope of the certification to eliminate certain commodities from its application and restrict the foreign territory embraced.

TO MOVE MAIL ACROSS
ATLANTIC IN TWO DAYS

NEW YORK, May 9.—The moving of mail across the Atlantic by dirigible in less than two days flying time, was envisioned today by those who heard of experiments with rigid airplanes as told by Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Miller at the annual dinner of the National Security league last night.

"From the success of the Shenandoah so far, and by trials of the ZR-3, which will be received from Germany next fall for commercial experiments," he said, "the navy hopes to show the practicability of a new means of transportation and communication."

TRAIN IN THE RAIN

CAMBRIDGE, May 9.—The Pennsylvania and Columbia crews, which will race against Harvard on the Charles late tomorrow afternoon, went out on the river in a drizzling rain today, for trial spins. The water was so rough that they went up-stream for some distance to find better conditions. All the oarsmen appeared in excellent shape.

A continuance of the rain and strong east wind is forecast for tomorrow, indicating that the races are likely to be postponed.

HELD FOR ATTEMPT TO KILL

NEWARK, N. J., May 9.—John O. Nelson, naturopath and physical culturist, last Tuesday. Vollmer was held for a hearing on May 16.

SOVIET OFFICIAL ENDS LIFE

Have You Piles?

Then You Have Something to Learn. Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonard was first to find the remedy. His prescription, HEMOROID, is now sold by all druggists. Dr. Leonard tried it in 1900 cases with the marvelous record of success in 95 per cent, and then decided it should be sold under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEMOROID from Green's Drug Store today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you—it seldom fails.—Adv.

THE GAS RATE QUESTION

Statement by General Manager of the Lowell Gas Light Company

In a statement made public as result of the recent action of Representative Thomas J. Corbett and others in petitioning the state department of public utilities for a public hearing on the matter of new gas rates recently put into effect by the Lowell Gas Light Co., C. R. Pritchard, vice president and general manager of the company in a statement to The Sun, says that the new rates will be understood and approved upon further explanation and investigation.

He admits that small consumers pay a little more than formerly, but says that heretofore these small users were being carried by the company at a loss and that in no instance is the increase more than a cent and a half a day. He says further that the new rate schedule means an average reduction of a little more than five cents per thousand cubic feet.

Mr. Pritchard's statement follows: "Before putting this sliding scale into effect we studied the rate situation very carefully, investigating similar schedules in several large cities in New England."

"We found there had been some misunderstanding and uncertainty on the part of the public at first, but upon further explanation and investigation the rates met with approval."

"It goes without saying that under the new rates the small user, whom we had been carrying at a loss, pays something more than under the old rate. The greatest increase, however, in any case, is only a cent and a half a day, and in most cases less than one cent per day."

"We can only repeat that this new rate schedule means an average reduction of a little more than five cents per thousand cubic feet, made possible by a reduction in operating costs."

"We believe that this new schedule when fully understood by our many customers and the public, will have the approval which it merits."

—C. R. PRITCHARD,
Vice President and General Manager.

TEXTILE SCHOOL SHOW

THIS EVENING

Everything is all set for the annual production of the Lowell Textile school this evening in the Auditorium where the local college students are to present "Nothing But the Text," which will be followed by dancing until 2 a. m. with Paul Whiteman's Leviathan orchestra furnishing the music.

This morning the entire management of the play were at the Auditorium placing the scenery that was contributed for the occasion by local theatres. The Auditorium stage will have the appearance of a regular theatre stage so cleverly have the properties been arranged. This afternoon a final dress rehearsal was held under the direction of the coach, Frank E. Fowle, of Malden.

The Leviathan orchestra will appear in their natty white broadcloth uniforms, the full dress on shipboard. Keith Pittman, who was bandmaster on the "Leviathan" from the time the gigantic liner, the pride of the U. S. navy, first took the seas under the stars and stripes, is one of the famous orchestra leaders of the country.

The ticket manager of the performance this morning announced that an advance sale of over 1500 tickets had been made which gives assurance that the attendance will be larger than that of last year when fully 3500 witnessed the Textile school play and the dance which followed.

The entire proceeds of the affair are given to the athletic association of the school in order to develop athletic teams that will bring the largest colleges of the east to Lowell.

ASK ABUTTERS TO MAKE CONNECTIONS

The board of public service yesterday decided to take special steps to ascertain that all abutters along Princeton boulevard have made what sewer, gas, water and other pipe connections may be desired. It is desired that all such work be completed before May 17 in order that the new Princeton boulevard will have at least a short lease of life before petitions to break open for the laying of pipe start coming in to the board.

Construction work there started yesterday and the board is desirous that all connection work be done in conjunction with the paving program.

"My Good Health Today is Due to Tanlac"

Says Mrs. Hayden, of Brockton, Mass., Tells How She Broke Shackles of Ill Health

"Judging from the results in my own case, Tanlac deserves all the praise that is being given it," is the glowing tribute of Mrs. Julia Hayden, 437 N. Main st., Brockton, Mass.

"Stomach trouble, lack of appetite and nervousness had caused me great suffering for a whole year. Nearly everything I ate brought on stomach pains, gas and bloating, and nervousness made it almost impossible to get a good night's sleep. I was hardly able to move around the house and would be confined to my bed for days at a time.

"That I am in good health today is every bit due to Tanlac and to Mrs. Isabelle Harding, 22 Lynnwood st., Brockton, Mass., who advised me to take it. Tanlac gave me a splendid appetite, relieved the stomach trouble, quieted my nerves and did me a world of good in every way. I have great faith in Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 10 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills for constipation. Made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

HOLY CROSS MUSICAL CLUBS

It is expected that one of the largest crowds of the season will assemble at the Lowell Memorial Auditorium next Tuesday evening to delight in an entertainment by the celebrated and talented Holy Cross Musical clubs, who come here to aid the establishment of a scholarship fund which will enable Lowell boys to attend the Worcester college in the near future. As in several years past, the clubs are under the able direction of J. Edward Bousvier, who has been a student of John Herman Loud, organist of Park Street Congregational church, Boston. The individual singing of Thomas R. Laffin of the class of 1924 will be one of the outstanding features of the concert. At the close of the concert at 9:30 o'clock an informal dancing party will be held.

Blond or Brunet? You Can be Either

Parisian women are now catering to the likes of their friends by being blonde or brunette at will. This they accomplish with wigs, of course. Parisian hairdressers are doing a thriving business in wigs and the present fashion of bobbed hair facilitates the wearing of them.

Photos show Mlle. Suzanne Preville, French movie star (who in private life is Madame Forget, wife of the movie director), with her natural black hair and her blonde wig.

THREE PUT TO DEATH

Kentucky's First Triple Execution by Electrocutation

Completed Early Today

EDDYVILLE, Ky., May 8.—Kentucky's first triple execution by electrocution was completed in Western state penitentiary here early today when Frank Thomas, George Weick and Charles Miller, the latter a negro, paid the penalty of death for murder. They died in the order named.

The doomed trio walked in turn from their cells in the death house to the chair with steady step. Only Thomas made a statement during the final moments. "Good night, I'm going home. I'm not a bit afraid, thank God," he said, as the black cap was adjusted.

The executions were completed in 46 minutes.

Thomas, past 40, and the oldest man ever executed in the state, was sentenced for the murder of Lee Arbogast, a fellow and benefactor, in Jefferson county. Weick died for the murder of William Geike near Louisville and Miller was convicted of the murder of two railroad guards in Breckinridge county. Thomas and Miller confessed, but Weick protested his innocence.

The Bone and Sinew

The readers of THE SUN are the bone and sinew of Lowell. They are practically all Lowell people who have helped to make the city what it is.

They earn their living in Lowell; they spend their money in Lowell; they are the main support of the Lowell merchants.

SUN readers are not in the habit of running to Boston for their supplies. They trade at home.

They are the largest body of newspaper readers in the city, and few of them read any other paper because they don't need to.

There is only one way for the merchant to reach this large, thrifty, industrious and intelligent body of readers, and that is through the columns of THE SUN.

BROADWAY CLUB SHOW WAS BIG SUCCESS

A large audience last night in the Memorial Auditorium witnessed the musical oddity and dance under the auspices of the Broadway Social and Athletic association, Inc., for the benefit of the Capt. Cunningham fund. The show, plus added features, was a repetition of the original production given in Associate hall on the night of April 25, about 48 hours before that structure was consumed by menacing flames.

The presentation last night was successful from every angle, and the Broadway boys are deserving of congratulations for their enterprise and service to a worthy cause. Particular commendation is due William Paul McCarthy, the director and accompanist, who devoted much personal time and attention in arranging the many details in connection with the affair.

Such an array of talent as that which performed on the Auditorium stage has seldom been seen in this city. Every one of the participants volunteered their services to the cause and provided an evening of rare entertainment for the gathering of 2500 or more.

Previous to the formal commencement of the program, Councillor Eugene A. Fitzgerald, in the role of Inspector, presided at the centre of the stage with Chief Edward P. Saunders of the fire department and James H. Walker, a member of the Butler Vets just as a miniature during, Box 12, was rung in. It was box 12 that first summoned the firemen to the Associate hall fire on April 27 when Capt. Cunningham lost his life. Out of respect to the gallant fire captain, the entire audience rose and stood in complete silence for a period of one minute. It was an impressive tribute to a heroic man.

The entertainment program was divided into two parts, a grand musical featuring Sam Scott's band of Scotch troubadours, the Mendelssohn male quartet and several of the city's prominent soloists.

Part two introduced the grand minstrel, with its humorous and men, popular songs and fancy dances. This part of the program was identical with that presented in the initial production, and was carried out with artistic precision by the principals and chorus. The complete program was as follows:

Thank All Who Assisted

The following card of thanks appeared on the evening's program:

"The members of the Broadway Social and Athletic association feel deeply grateful to each and every individual, business house and organization that joined with us in making tonight's testimonial possible. Such spontaneous, generous and universal co-operation and assistance recall the response made on a previous occasion when we dedicated a memorial to our heroic war dead.

Another hero, Capt. Edward J. P. Cunningham, has gone to his reward. He, too, gave his life on the altar of duty, and a grateful community joins in paying him tribute.

As sponsors of the testimonial, we shall never forget all those who assisted us and sincerely hope that all

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair by Washing It

When you wash children's hair be careful what you use. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is all that is required. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any drug store, and a few ounces will last for months.—Adv.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion or Stomach Trouble
CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis accompanied by dangerous stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with pepsin or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines.

Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Bismarck Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better than Bismarck Magnesia to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. It soaks up the harmful excess acid much as a sponge or blotting paper might, and your stomach feels fine in just a few minutes. Bismarck Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive.—Adv.

Park, trombones; M. P. P. French horn; W. Churchill, tuba; A. W. Greeley, bass viol; and George Bowers, drums.

The general committee in charge of the affair consisted of William A. Walsh, Eugene A. Fitzgerald, Timothy F. O'Sullivan, Dominick F. Molloy.

The officers of the dance committee were: Chairman, Michael Molloy; secretary, John Madden; treasurer, Peter F. Brady; floor director, John A. Ashe.

LAWRENCE K. OF C.
AT MERRIMACK PARK

The annual pop concert held by Lawrence council, No. 67, Knights of Columbus, will be staged this year at Merrimack park on Monday evening, May 12. The committee in charge is hard at work laying plans that the affair may be the biggest and best of the out-door season. Broderick's orchestra, which was so cordially received at the charity ball, will play for the occasion. The cause for which the concert is run is a worthy one, namely, the Boston college building fund. All proceeds will be donated to Boston college.

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Don't hurt one bit. Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot endures, without soreness or irritation.—Adv.

HELD ENTERTAINMENT
IN PARISH HOUSE

A fine program including two comedy sketches and numerous vocal and instrumental selections was given last evening in St. Anne's parish house by the members of the senior class of the church before a large and appreciative audience.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Eisel entertained with piano and violin duets following which, "Thankful for Jack," a light comedy sketch was ably presented. The Misses Bertha Brooks, Alice Butterby, Nellie Pheasey, Lena Barnett and Hazel Corey interpreted the characters in the sketch.

The pupils of Miss Celia Crowe gave several dance numbers including solos. Miss Ida Cross entertained with readings.

"Because It Rained," was then presented by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Eisel, Miss Marjorie Atkinson and Miss Floris Haynes.

During the evening various tables were conducted by the following: Miss Mabel Humphreys, Mrs. T. Greenwood, Miss Mabel Campbell and Miss Dorothy Turner, chairman; Mrs. W. Davidson, Mrs. W. Lacey and Mrs. Carl Wheeler, cake; Miss Sybil Dinmore, punch. The members of the St. Gallahad class served ice cream.

Misses Harry and Kenyon Speal, John Lambert, Lester Shaw and Walter Langley, members of the Boy Scout troop of the church were the ushers.

Mr. Thomas Mills was the stage manager, while Messrs. T. Maude, G. White and Benjamin Taylor were in charge of the tickets.

BUSY WEEK-END FOR GIRLS' CITY CLUB

A busy week-end has been arranged for the members of the Girls' City club. Tomorrow at 2 o'clock, a "Hare and Hound" party will leave the city under the direction of Miss Laura Edmunds and Miss Viola McMan. Everyone interested in sports is urged to join the chase.

Sunday will be a gala day for the clubs belonging to the Massachusetts league or girls' clubs. The City club of Lowell, one of the largest of the state clubs, will have a big delegation present at the Girl Scouts' property, Cedar Hill, Waltham. The Lowell girls will leave here at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and arrive back at 6:30 in the evening. There will be a short meeting outdoors at which two directors will be chosen to represent the state league of the board of directors of the National league of girls' clubs. Miss Mary Martin, former president of the Lowell club, has been nominated as one candidate.

The baseball season will open Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock. Teams are being formed and within a month challenges will be issued to other girl teams.

Tomorrow and Tuesday evenings will be devoted to the club dancing parties. Miss Helen Swain will be hostess tomorrow evening at the party in the clubrooms, and on Tuesday evening at the Pawtucket beachhouse. Mrs. Martha Scannell and Mrs. James O'Donoghue will serve.

The hospitality committee is arranging details for "Slackers" night, which will be held May 19. Helen A. Thomas, chairman of the committee, urges every girl to see that her mother reserves that date for the club.

$500 ANNUITY FOR WIDOW OF FIREMAN

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, May 8.—The rules committee of the house of representatives has voted to admit for consideration the petition of Representative Owen E. Breunert that an annuity, not exceeding $500 a year, be paid to the widow of William T. Ross, a Lowell fireman, who lost his life in performance of duty.

The bill provides that the act must have the acceptance of the local city government in Lowell.

Mayor John J. Donovan of Lowell sent to the legislature a statement that the council approved the measure by unanimous vote on May 6.

The Cunningham bill, which provides a fireman's annuity benefit, was introduced in the house yesterday and will be on the governor's desk next week.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN AND IMPERILS HOME

North Billerica firemen were summoned to the home of Chester Wong in High street, in the north village, early last evening after a fire broke out in a barn on the Wong estate. The barn was destroyed and the losses were considerable. The structure contained restaurant supplies, furniture and other household articles which had been stored there by the owner, who lives near by.

The fire was unable to prevent the barn's destruction, as the fire had a good start, but were successful in shielding the Wong home from flying sparks and scorching. The town authorities say there was no one at home on the Wong estate when the blaze was discovered. It has been the property of the owner for about eight years. Billerica officials estimate the loss to be around $1500.

"I picked up a Cuticura Soap wrapper and after reading it sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I purchased more, and he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. John Roderick, 26 Conant St., Provincetown, Mass., Aug. 14, 1923.

All members are requested to meet at 8 o'clock in Prescott street, in line formation, and escorted by the Lowell Cadet band, will march in a body to St. Peter's church. The chaplain of the council, Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan, will be the celebrant of the mass and special music will be rendered by the choir.

Heffernan, and the state secretary, Edmund J. Brandon. An elaborate musical program has been arranged, which will include such well known talent as Andrew McCarthy, John Broderick, William Geekin, Dan Brennan, Tom Tobin, Joseph Lannan and others. Grand Knight Frank A. Groves has appointed the following committee to assist in the exercises: Lecturer Edward P. Slattery, Jr., Joseph Quigley, John Flannery, D.G.K., Edward Callahan, John E. Hart, P.G.K., Thomas Hartley, Timothy Rohan, Thomas Tolson, John O'Brien and Chris McSorley.

contention, the water department superintendent was instructed that, commencing with the next payroll to be submitted for the board's approval, the changes recommended be made so that the pay scales in the two departments will conform.

Under this plan two watchmen are raised from $4.50 to $4.88 per day and one bracer meets the same change in status. Nine officers and two coal passers are raised from $4.75 to $5.20 a day.

Butman Road Up Again

Arthur C. Spalding, president of the Oakland Improvement association, appeared relative to Butman road, improvements and was informed that there will be a hearing on the matter held in connection with the board meeting next Thursday. In discussion Mr. Meloy doubted the advisability of immediately macadamizing the street until other streets with priority rights meet attention. The city engineer and superintendent of streets were instructed to collaborate in the presentation of a definite plan for action by the board at next week's meeting.

Maurice E. McCormick, resident manager for the Eastern Mass. St. Ry. corporation, appeared relative to paving between the tracks in Lawrence street

OUTDOOR RELIEF WORK

The city council committee on charities and Supt. Joseph H. Gormley of the charity department, will confer next Monday night regarding the new ordinance affecting outdoor relief work. where repaving is now being carried on by the city. After discussion it was voted to accept the offer of the trolley company to remove its present cobbles in that street and grout blocks if they are placed by the city. Chairman Murphy scored the company for what he termed its lack of co-operation with the city in construction work and served notice that he intends to insist the trolley company live up to its original agreement with the city which requires it keep all spaces between tracks in A No. 1 condition.

To Check Maintenance

"High street, Stevens street and Nesmith street among many others are bad," said Mr. Murphy. "If the street railway company intends to live up only to the letter of the law in dealing with us on new work we'll hold them to the letter of the law in their maintenance."

Mr. Leary asked Mr. McCormick if he didn't think that the trolley company would save more in the long run by keeping in cadence with the street improvement program and paying its share of paving streets from curb to curb, than it would by its present attitude of doing no more than is legally required. Mr. McCormick doubted. Mr. Meloy took the attitude that if the street railway company pays $15,000 a year or more in taxes the matter of relieving the company from participation in the expense of new street paving is worthy of study. Mr. McCormick said such action has been taken in other cities and pointed out that while the gas and telephone companies use the streets for conduits and other subterranean work they are not charged.

"Fix for Competitor"

"Charging to trolley company is a relic of the old horse-drawn days," said Mr. McCormick. "It was quite the proper thing when we had horses running between our tracks, wearing out the roadway, if you will. But now whatever we spend in fixing up that space is in reality making things more comfortable for the auto, our competitor."

Several new petitions were read at the meeting and held in abeyance pending official views of the territory which would be affected. Peter Flood was engaged as a stable man and teamster in the street department and Edward F. Shanahan as a painter's helper. It will be the latter's lot to paint the streets with the white safety zones in the downtown sections.

Charles Klipatrick spoke briefly in favor of the recommendation of City Engineer Stephen Kearney that Stevens street be widened and put in better shape, saying he will be only too glad to pay his proportionate cost. Mr. Lowell Humer asked about the acceptance of Barnaby street and the engineer was instructed to prepare plan and profile and the matter will come up at the next meeting.

Street Obstruction Up

On motion of Mr. Meloy, the superintendent of streets was instructed to report on the present condition of Beacon street, with recommendations, and also to report with recommendations on several projects in ward 6 mentioned in a letter received from Councilor J. A. N. Chretien.

A communication from the council, regarding the obstruction of Thorndike street was next given attention. Councilor Cosgrove at the council meeting Tuesday night started an inquiry to find why, by whom, and for how long the street was obstructed in the vicinity of Chalmers street. The board found that the Hurton H. Wiggin Co., contractors, is working there on a permit which expired March 23 and the clerk was instructed to so write the council. It was further decided to instruct Paving Inspector Salmon to include in his duties the supervision of permits in use.

Bills approved included: Sewer maintenance, $8410.22; street lighting, $11,712.50; ashes and waste, $1132.30; macadam, $545.35; sewer construction, $390.93; first street extension, $92.54; new sidewalks, $1175.18; paving, $2224; street sprinkling, $4355.42; transfers, $909.25; water department, $22,715.66.

POWDER RIVER FILMS AT THE RIALTO

"Powder River," the official U. S. War Films which packed the local Memorial Auditorium at prices ranging from 50 cents to $1 will be shown at the Rialto theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the usual Rialto prices. The Rialto management should be commended for bringing this picture back to Lowell at prices that will be within reach of all.

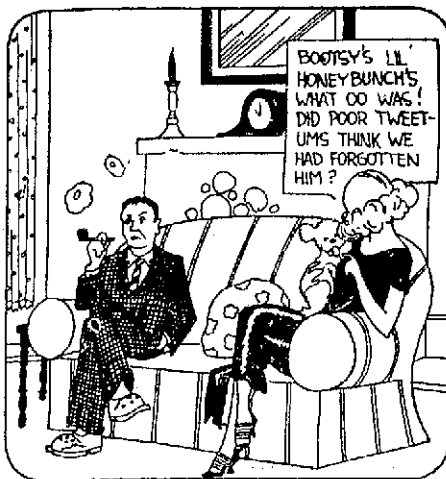

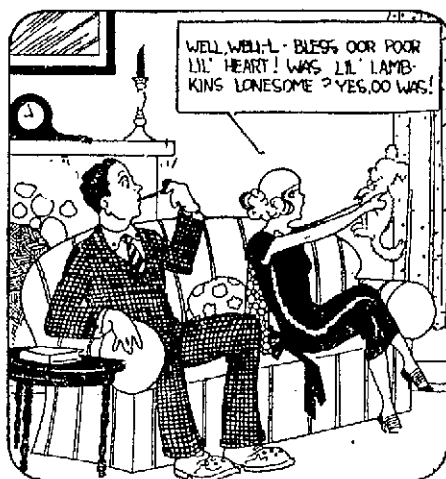

Memories of other days, stirring days of strife and sacrifice are revived as this epic of the screen vividly tells the story of how the war was won and shows the stellar and heroic parts played by American divisions, particularly at Cantigny, St. Mihiel, Chateau Thierry and the Argonne.

MERRIMACK SQUARE

A Tom Mix picture with bathing girls is something out of the ordinary but that's what the famous star offers in his latest production, "Soft-Boiled," now playing at the Merrimack Square theatre. Only a few performances remain. Mix is an out-of-the-ordinary hero in this production. It's a story crammed with pen action and pretty girls from start to finish. There are nine reels of entertainment in this feature.

There is an exceptionally good surrounding program, including William Russell in his latest dramatic success, "Alias the Night Wind," a comedy and the latest International News.

For Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the management announces Cecil B. de Mille's first picture since

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

The telling of a story is an art, which some persons—not infrequently public speakers—meter acquirers. Tom Kelly, "that Irishman," however, demonstrates at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, just how well a story can be told. And all of his stories are new. Dainty Marie never looked better or performed with greater daring than during the present week. Her trapeze work is especially good. Hall, Brian & Brundage in "A Night on Broadway" introduce novelties, and Sampson & Wallace in music and comedy are novel. Other acts are those of Town & Dittler's dancing jugglers, and Damerel & Vail, singers. "For You My Boy" is the title of the week's picture.

THE STRAND

If you have not seen that wonder picture, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," now showing at The Strand, then be sure and avail yourself of the remaining opportunities today and tomorrow. Boston and New York paid $2 prices to see it. Lowell is asked to pay 25 and 35 for the matinees and 25 and 50 nights. Apart from the real value of the story itself, presented by Victor Hugo, the characterization of the Hunchback as interpreted by Lon Chaney is well worth the price of admission. Chaney is known for his remarkable treatment of unusual roles in the past, but in this one he has far outdone his previous efforts. Ann Dale, New York critic of note, calls Chaney's interpretation one of the greatest of its kind on stage or screen. Chaney once worked in studios at $10 weekly until the coming of "The Miracle Man," when his salary jumped to $1000, gradually mounting to $2500 at the time he was engaged in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." After the press notices were issued concerning his work his services were in great demand and as high as $1500 per week were offered him. He is still considering several tempting offers. The supporting cast is also most commendable. And don't forget that this story has received the approval of all denominations.

RIALTO THEATRE

Over three hours of solid entertainment is offered to local theatre-goers who attend the Rialto today and tomorrow and in addition to the lengthy picture program four big acts will be offered tonight and there is no advance in prices. The Friday Night Vaudeville shows are the talk of the town and are worth seeing. Four fine acts have been secured for tonight.

The picture program is headed by Anna Q. Nilsson who is the featured player in "Innocence." In this strong drama Miss Nilsson is seen as Pay Leasia, who marries a successful broker. The latter, while he loves his beautiful wife, is not used to the ways of the stage and its people, and cannot understand the spirit of easy friendliness that prevails among them. And so suspicion gradually takes root in his mind that his young wife is too warmly fond of the young actor who appears with her in her play. In his belief he is strengthened because appearances are so very much against the two, although they are entirely innocent of wrong doing. Here is a strong treatment of circumstantial evidence and its result upon the lives of many people. It forms the basis for a climax that has been ingeniously handled. There is an unexpected twist to the story that makes it one to be remembered. Miss Nilsson is her usual beautiful self—and she is more than that, for she seems to have the rare combination of beauty and intelligence of portrayal.

Other pictures on the program and there are many, include: Leo Maloney in "Hewlin Through" in a Western story with a good theme and plenty of action; the fourth round of "Fighting Blood," H. C. Witwer's well known light classic; an Our Gang comedy, the second chapter of Ruth Roland in "Haunted Valley" and a new issue of Fox News. Verily this is indeed a quantity as well as quality program and enough to please even the most blasé movie fan.

My Gift to You

The white facial clay I use
By Edna Wallace Hopper

After 40 years as a famous beauty, I still look like a girl. Thousands who see me daily, on the stage and elsewhere, marvel at my youthful bloom and contours.

But mine was largely a cultivated beauty. French beauty experts, many years ago, taught me how to do it. And my girlish looks at my grand old age are due to the help French scientists created.

I have supplied these helps to countless women, and they secured like results. Plain women became beauties. Women old in years have ward off every sign of age. So I know these helps can bring to millions what they crave. And I have decided to supply these helps to all who wish to use them.

First, new-type clay

Many years ago, French experts taught me to use clay. They said that famous beauties of all ages had employed it.

They then used crude and muddy clays, like many use today. But they have since perfected clay by 20 years of scientific study.

By countless tests they have found the supreme clay, a rare mineral-baden clay. They have learned how to refine it, to remove the useless mud. My clay today is white and clean and dainty. They have found added factors which bring new and manifold results.

The clay I now use—my White Youth Clay—is nothing like the old-time clays. I have used clays for many years, but no other clay has ever brought comparable results. So now I am having this new-type clay made for all who wish to use it.

You must use clay

Clay is essential to beauty at its best. It brings new beauty, and in once. Many women, in 10 minutes, seem to drop ten years. I have seen it make plain women almost ravine beauties.

Clay users stand out everywhere for their beautiful complexions. How it restores and maintains one's youthful bloom and contour is shown by my girlish face.

Youth Clay purges the skin of all that clogs and mars it. It acts to remove the cause of sallowness, blackheads and blemishes.

It brings the blood to the skin to nourish and revive it. That brings the rosy afterglow, so amazing when you see it.

It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, reduces enlarged pores. Thus it gives my skin, even at my age, the smoothness and bloom of a girl. No matter what your age, the greatest kindness I can do is to urge you to employ it. If young, do it for added beauty. If older, do it to renew your youth.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Youth Clay is now supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. Price, 50c and $1 per tube. Also, my Youth Cream, which should follow the clay. Also my Facial Youth, my famous liquid cleanser. Also my Hair Youth, to which I owe my heavy, lustrous hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

I guarantee that any will delight you. If the first package fails to, your dealer will return its price.

AWAIT WORD FROM WHITE HOUSE ON WORLD COURT

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Some definite reaction from the White House and state department was awaited today to the new world court plan proposed in detail yesterday by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader and chairman of the foreign relations committee, which has before it a number of proposals dealing in different ways with the same matter.

Senator Lodge's resolution proposes the setting up of a world court through The Hague conference, which would be reconvened at the call of the president for the purpose, and makes no reference to the court of international justice, established under the auspices of the League of Nations.

Comment on the plan, which was submitted to the senate without explanation, was withheld yesterday in executive quarters, and it was not disclosed whether the president or Secretary Hughes had been informed in advance of Mr. Lodge's intention. Indications appeared clear, however, that Mr. Coolidge had not altered his view, formally set forth to congress that the United States should accept membership in the international court already in existence, as recommended by President Harding.

Whitman, a bond salesman, who was shot down as the bandits fled from the bank.

COOLIDGE WINS CALIFORNIA

President Coolidge has won a great victory in the California primaries, defeating Hiram Johnson by an overwhelming vote. That eliminates all opposition in the republican convention and Coolidge may be nominated by acclamation. Some republican enthusiasts have noted the disparity between the vote cast by republicans and that by the democrats; but the declaration is delusive. On the republican side were two candidates pitted against each other. Senator Johnson and the president. What could be better devised to bring out a large vote?

On the democratic side there was no such personal contest. It is true Mr. McAdoo put up a big campaign in California, but there was little enthusiasm for him. Indeed, the small vote is rather an indication that he is not a general favorite, even in his own state. The trouble on the democratic side was, that no great proportion of the voters centered upon any candidate. The small vote does not, as some papers claim, indicate a lack of interest in the coming national election which would bespeak democratic defeat in November.

Coolidge is running as a party unto himself, merely using the republican label and election machinery as necessary in carrying out the legal formalities. It will be different when a strong candidate is named by the democratic party to put up a real battle.

THAT TRUNK SEWER

City Engineer Kearney has rendered a valuable service to the city in exposing the very dangerously expensive proposition advocated by the State Department of Health, in the plan for a trunk sewer from Lowell to the sea. Mr. Kearney shows that the expense would be prohibitive and that the committee has not given a fair statement of the estimated cost of such an undertaking. It would simply bankrupt the city of Lowell without bringing any practical return. It would not even free the river from contamination so long as the state of New Hampshire does not join in the project. The scheme is one which may well be set down as visionary, inexpedient and prohibitive on account of the enormous expense.

If the state insists upon this trunk sewer, it should bear so much of the expense that the balance will not bankrupt the cities of the Merrimack Valley that are supposed to be the beneficiaries of the improvement. Lowell would positively gain nothing from the trunk sewer which, according to the present reckoning, would cost us a total of $10,000,000 in 40 years and a very substantial sum annually thereafter for maintenance. That would put our tax rate so high that our leading industries would move out and no others would take their places. It would mean financial and industrial ruin.

CITY ZONING ORDINANCE

An article, issued by the department of commerce, indicates that already eleven states have passed laws providing for city zoning, while four other states have the matter under consideration. It has been found practical to carry out neighborhood agreements as to the use of land in certain districts, under regulations that, in a general way, protect residential districts from the intrusion of disagreeable lines of business. Laws authorizing city zoning have stood the test of constitutionalality. They simply empower local authorities to adopt ordinances suitable to the needs of their respective districts. Last year, zoning ordinances were in effect in 221 municipalities, with a population exceeding 22,000,000 inhabitants, or more than 40 per cent of the total urban population of the country.

Thus it appears that city zoning has already been generally adopted throughout the country and that in moving in that direction the city of Lowell is only following the example of other municipalities in adopting measures to prevent the encroachment of different forms of industrial activity on residential districts that can only result in the depreciation of property, loss to the owners and injury to the city at large.

Modern zoning contemplates an inviolation of the police power in relation to the use which the land and structures may be put, the height or number of stories of buildings, and the area of the lot to be occupied by buildings in certain districts. It is based on the principle of the fire limits for the protection of the municipality as a whole. If zoning ordinances are carefully drawn in accordance with the enabling act, they will stand the test of validity in the courts. The principle of zoning is very much different from that of preventing a common law nuisance in the case of a single building.

While city zoning has been widely adopted, it has, in many cases, been followed by much contention, controversy and litigation. As a result, in many instances, boards of adjustment have been necessary to deal with special cases in which grave injustices seemed to result from the operation of the ordinance. It appears, therefore, that the whole subject is one that must be considered with strictly local lines and with due regard for the principles of law and justice in providing for the general good.

LIMITING WOMEN'S WORK

The United States supreme court, in a decision handed down last month, held that states may legally limit the hours of work of women in certain industries and prohibit their employment after certain hours at night. The decision ought to have far-reaching importance, as it probably has, if the enforcement has been placed in the proper channels. Numerous publications issued in the interest of organized labor have taken the opportunity to spread the news far and wide, happily, and it will therefore be read in many quarters of the land where news of interest to men who toil is eagerly perused and discussed.

The case referred to was brought by one Joseph Rutledge, a restaurant keeper in Buffalo, who was convicted of having permitted a waitress to work after 10 o'clock at night in violation of the act of 1917.

Justice Sutherland, of the supreme court, pointing out that there was good reason for believing the New York legislature had correctly concluded that the injurious consequences of night employment were more pronounced on women than on men, made a decision to the effect that the law under attack was not an undue and arbitrary interference with the liberty of contract between adults in the matter of employment. The fact that the New York law excludes from its operation women employed in restaurants, as singers and performers, attendants in ladies' cloakrooms, kitchens of hotels and lunchrooms and restaurants, conducted by employers solely for the benefit of their employees, did not make the law invalid, Justice Sutherland ruled.

The question as to what extent the employment of women should be permitted is one for the legislatures of the state to determine, as in the case of Massachusetts today. And when laws have been enacted to prohibit employment detrimental to the health of women, it is not likely they will be set aside on the ground that women in such matters stand upon an equality with men.

ULSTER REBELLIOS

The present trouble in Ireland results directly from the refusal of the Ulster officials to appoint a commissioner to settle upon the boundary line between Ulster and the Free State, as provided for in the treaty. At the opening of the World War, the Irish question was a leading issue in the British parliament. Redmond's Home Rule bill had been enacted, but through the influence of Ulster its operation was suspended, presumably pending the end of the war. Ulster had threatened rebellion, if it were put in force and applied to that province. She is now following the same tactics; and still the British parliament says, "It is unthinkable to coerce Ulster."

Unless that policy be changed, and England carries out the provisions of the treaty, the whole thing may be carelessly drawn in accordance with the enabling act, they will stand the test of validity in the courts. The principle of zoning is very much different from that of preventing a common law nuisance in the case of a single building.

It may be assumed, that if Ulster acts away with her threats of rebellion, other parts of the empire may soon follow the example and refuse to comply with imperial edicts.

PRICE OF GAS

If the figures given out by the Public Utilities department on the price of gas in this and other cities, be correct, it would appear that the rate in Lowell, at least for the first 1000 cubic feet consumed, is greater than in the other leading cities of the state. For consumers who use a very large amount of gas the price is lower; but this does not help the average consumer who uses from 100 to 1000 cubic feet.

Thus a consumer who uses 100,000 cubic feet will be charged a lower rate according to a scale under which the price is reduced as the quantity of gas is increased. If any injustice is being done to the average consumer, the hearing, petitioned for by Rep. Corbett, if granted, will bring it to light.

Pall River is enjoying the rare deluge of Music Week when all the phonographs, pianos and other musical instruments will be kept busy; but the real observance consists of lectures and musical recitals in which high class music is rendered. The effect of any such observance is to increase or improve the popular appreciation of music and its uplifting influence.

Paying the Penalty

"The greatest penalty of being so popular," says Miss Scandoo who is very popular this season, having a date every night and Sunday, too, "is that I haven't been able to eat onions for supper in three months."

Another Miracle

The Prince of Wales recently rode three horses, one at a time, without tumbling off. We find this news at the bottom of the paper. If he had fallen it would have caused more comment. That's the way with everything. You are seldom noticed except when you make a mistake.

Passing the Buck

"Guide," asked the amateur hunter plaintively, "aren't there any deer around here?" "Just saw a fine buck, sir; but we passed it." They tramped along for an hour and the city man voiced another complaint. "No deer in this woods," "No, sir; there are. We just passed a buck." "I guess I'll employ another guide." You are too good at passing the buck.—Rebobbeth Sunday Herald.

What Privilege Means

Representative Honer Koch of Kansas said in an argument about tariffs and taxes: "I am against privileges. Privileges means inefficiency, trouble, corruption, and the loss of the rights of the citizen who had the privilege. Often and often the man would be heard yelling through his speaking tube to the engineer: 'Great Scott, Joe, slow her down, can't you. We got 'em drinking fine.'—Kansas City Times.

Correctly Quoted

After all sorts of hints, which showed clearly that he might be getting some use in the domestic service, Johnny had succeeded in extracting a dime from his indulgent mother. He failed to thank her, however, and she was annoyed at his display of bad manners. "Johnny, you are most forgetful," she said. "I have given you a dime and you are simply going to waste it. I can't say, was the reply. 'You can't say? What do I say to daddy when he gives me money?' 'Is that all?' quoted the knowing child.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Unequal Division

The court was occupying its learned mind with a case involving the ownership of a clock of the eight-day variety. Evidence was heard for and against both sides. Counsel argued to the best of their ability and at the end of the day no definite conclusion had been reached. "Too much time has been wasted on this case already," said the judge at last, impatiently, and then, turning to the plaintiff, he added: "You get the clock." "And what do I get?" asked the defendant, complacently. "You get the eight days," was the stern judicial reply.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Christening Comedy

The event was a christening, and the ceremony thought he would offer the parents an appropriate benediction. "Dear parents," he said, "before I baptize this child, let me give you a few well-meant words of advice on the responsibilities of parenthood. Do you realize what hope should dawn in your hearts today? Think of the fact that this child, be it a boy or a girl, he may grow up to become a clergyman, like myself, or maybe, a brave and captain or a noble soldier. He may even rise to the glorious height of an illustrious statesman. What pleasure will be yours in guarding and watching his career—what name did you say?" In timid whisper came the mother's reply: "Jemima Ann, sir."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Touch of Nature

Whatever the form or the faces we wear, The traits of the human are evermore there. We may walk on two feet or run on all fours, We may dig as we enter or scratch on the doors, If we speak or are silent are meaning is plain, We all know enough to come out of the rain, We hunger and thirst, we eat and we drink, By word or by signal, we say what we think, We love to devotion, we hate with a zest, We are bad at our worst, we are good at our best, And scholar declare that all creatures are kin, Yea, even blood brothers under the skin.

While science reveals our common descent, Which many good people are quick to resent; What fully our origin thus we bemoan! Since we keep on forever ascending, Let tolerance banish all hatred and blame, Since God in His heaven is ever the same, And goodness and mercy shall follow While the ages work out His omnipotent will.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Perhaps the most beautiful grounds in and around Lowell are those of the immaculate Congregational church. Mounds of tulips, red, yellow and variegated, now in full bloom, and set on a blanket of greenest grass, make a most pleasing picture. The magnolia trees, now at the height of their beauty, are also attractive, as are the numerous trees and shrubs, in their initial spring dress. These grounds have always been noted for their beauty and even thus early their attractiveness is most striking.

Speaking of spring flowers, I noticed that the lilacs which at this time of year are usually in bloom, have not as yet burst forth. Even the trees are late this year, due to the unseasonable weather.

"Founders' day," at the Rogers Hall school was usual, auspiciously observed on Wednesday of this week. A field day was also held, and the girls proved their ability as versatile athletes in the performance of numerous stunts.

Fred H. Daniels, art instructor of Newton, scored a big hit with the Normal school pupils in his address before them this week. His topic, "Ideals in Beauty and Dress," was most interesting, and the students eagerly sought a longer talk, although closing time

JUST A SUGGESTION

A novel idea has surely been missed by the wall paper men of the land. And, just as a hunch, let me give them the gist of the thing so that they'll understand.

A youngster, you know, when it's crawling around and hugging the floor like a leech, creeps hither and yon with its knees on the ground, trying to get things placed just out of reach.

The paddies get soiled as they wipe up the floor and the kiddie creeps under the table. It reaches for something and then something more; for spillings of jam, when it's able.

And then to the wall little creeper will crawl just to sit there and merrily coo. The innocent being is happily seeing what harm tiny paddies will do.

Thus imprints are made and the wall paper men, if they'll copy the tiny tot touch, can make a design of the hand marks and then all those marks won't be noticed so much.

REGULAR ARMY OUTFITS AT CAMP DEVENS

(Special to The Sun.)

CAMP DEVENS, May 9.—Lowell youths eagerly planning to enter the citizens' military training schools at Camp Devens this year, will be interested to learn that most of the regular army detachments necessary for seasonal camp guard duty and also for military instruction duties in co-operation with the citizen soldiery, are now all set in their summer barracks and nicely, thank you!

The first battalion of the 15th Infantry—a very popular unit at Devens—left Boston last Thursday, big army trucks rumbling away, clattering in new paint, with the regimental baggage and supplies bound for Ayer Junction and the World War muster field.

The second battalion of the 15th followed the first, on May 5. The third battalion has been quartered at Keeler since Dec. 20 last. The first is made up of troops who have been stationed at Fort Strong. The second includes the detachments which have been on duty at the army base, Fort Revere, Fort Andrews and Fort Warren, in Boston harbor. Only small detachments are left at the fort to keep the coast artillery company. The regiment is under command of Colonel Paul Giddings. Capt. Guy C. Cowan is the adjutant. The soldiers will remain at Camp Devens until the end of the citizens' training season, returning to their permanent posts about September 15.

On May 13, the 15th Infantry will hold its annual regimental organization day exercises at Devens in honor of the establishment of the regiment, May 19, 1861. There will be parades, reviews, band concerts, and a baseball game between the 15th and some other organization. Major General A. W. Brewster and Brigadier General Malvern Hill Barnum will speak. Lieut. M. J. Byrne will review the history of the regiment.

The public is invited to attend the ceremonies on this anniversary day, and all visiting Lowell guests of the soldiers and officers will be entertained at the regimental mess at noon. Twenty officers and 100 enlisted men of the 15th Infantry, U.S.A., were scheduled to leave Portland, Me., on May 10, for Devens. The journey is to be made by motor trucks. The remainder of the 15th is not expected to be ordered to camp before July 1.

During the coming training season of the "cits" from Lowell and elsewhere, there is to be a school for cooks and bakers, held at the camp every day until the close of the regular day tours. Capt. Oliver L. Overmyer, quartermaster corps, U.S.A., is to be the commanding officer. The captain and seven enlisted men arrived in camp May 1 to make preparations for the arrival of the students.

The second battalion, 15th Infantry, less Company E and plus headquarters and service company, made the journey from Boston forts to Camp Devens on foot as in former years. Camp headquarters has moved from its winter quarters in the quartermaster's department house, to their summer quarters on Telegraph hill. Gen. Malvern Hill Barnum assumed command of camp on May 1, conforming to orders issued by the war department.

Mr. Daniels' illustrations in colored chalk enhanced his talk greatly. The artist has a pleasing personality, is an interesting talker, as was shown in his lecture. He was to have lectured on "The Beauty of Art," illustrated with stereopticon views, but because of the limited space of the school laboratory, it was deemed advisable to change the topic, that it might be given in the lecture hall, where all the pupils could attend.

Carelessness and ignorance are the two main causes for our traffic accidents. Both may be removed by education. I believe these 11 short rules cover almost every emergency:

Be ready always for any emergency by watching your road and your driving.

Always make sure that brakes and steering device are functioning properly.

Never stop or even slow down without first signaling.

Never make a turn without caution for your own safety and warning to others.

Never stop in a narrow part of the highway if it can be avoided.

Never start out from curb without warning or seeing that the road is clear.

Never try to save a minute or two by taking chances.

Obey every rule of the road, both those made by law and those by common sense.

Insist that anyone driving your car use the same care that you would.

Be vigilant, courteous and thoughtful, as much a gentleman on the road as anywhere else.

Strict observance of these "fourteen points" would reduce automobile accidents to the vanishing point both on city streets and country roads.

GOOD-NIGHT

Soft the evening shadows fall;
Light is flying,
Day is dying,
Darkness stealth over all.
Good-night!

Autumn garners in her stores—
Fosson of the fading year;
Leaves are dying,
Winds are sighing—
Whispering of the Winter near.
Good-night!

Youth is vanished, manhood wanes;
Age its forward shadows throws;
Day is dying,
Years are flying,
Life runs onward to its close.
Good-night!

APPALACHIAN MOUNTAIN CLUB ACTIVITIES

Lowell members of the Appalachian Mountain club have been notified to prepare for a tour on Memorial day, May 30 of the old Middlesex canal route. The preliminary rendezvous will be in this city at a place to be assigned.

The Appalachians have never before in a body toured the route of the historical canalway, although many members of the outdoor club have followed the original course which the old-time waterway took on its winding through Middlesex county as a freight and passenger carrier.

Appalachians not familiar with the canal right-of-way will find it mapped out for them on their tramp through the precincts of Lowell, for the chambers of commerce has just secured and placed in position at five different spots on the old canal course, proper markers for public information. This action on the part of Lowell business men has been widely commended.

Members of the Appalachian club rarely gain newspaper publicity except when they make their annual, joyous treks to New Hampshire and the White Mountain region in the fall and winter of each year. Hundreds of members and guests join the mountain-climbing expeditions, gaining vigorous exercise and renewed health in many instances. The winter vacation at Jackson, N. H., is always a festival capriciously enjoyed, as many Lowell citizens know.

The first 1924 outing of the Appalachians' outdoor season is scheduled as a week-end camping trip, which will include a canoe ride down the Charles river, from West Medway to Mills, and thence to South Natick. The outing will be conducted from the most attractive of this month's activities planned by members of the Appalachian Mountain club.

Another outing that should prove very popular, club officials say, is a walk over the Blue Hill range, to take place Saturday, May 17. This trip will be made by a smaller group of the club not desiring to make the Charles river canoe voyage.

On May 19, two Appalachian parties will entrain for Boston, one going to the region of Beach Bluff and the other, composed of natural history students, to Sharon.

J. P. MORGAN RETURNS

Declines to Corroborate Wall St. Report Concerning Loan to Germany

NEW YORK, May 9.—J. P. Morgan has entered into definite negotiations concerning a loan of $100,000,000 by American bankers to Germany to help rehabilitate that country, he is not ready to talk about it or give the outline of the deal to the public.

The banker arrived yesterday on the Homeric after an absence of several months.

Speaking of the proposed German loan, Mr. Morgan said:

"Much as I would like to go into this matter, it is obvious that my usefulness is at an end at this time."

He was told Owen D. Young, one of the American financiers, had said the loan might easily be floated here.

SEEKING BANDITS WHO ROBBED MOTORMAN

Capt. David Petrie, Lieut. Martin Maher and Sergt. Philip Dwyer are today extending every effort to locate two youthful bandits, who last night held up and robbed Daniel Rousseau, a street car operator, at the end of the Andover street line. The bandits, armed and apparently unafraid, made their escape with $18.

The hold-up occurred late last night when Rousseau was alone in the car. He was just about ready to start the return trip to the city when the two young men entered, one of them leveled a revolver at him, while the other went through his pockets. After securing the money and threatening the car operator should he cry out, the robbers disappeared over Andover street hill in the direction of North Tewksbury.

On his way back to the city, Rousseau stopped at a house in Andover street and notified the police by telephone. Officer Francis J. Moore and Motorcyclist Officer Wallace K. Kivlin were sent to investigate but failed to find clues of the hold-up men.

SMALLPOX CLOSES HUNTINGTON SCHOOL

WESTFIELD, May 9.—The discovery of two cases of smallpox in Huntington, a town of 1500 inhabitants, 12 miles west of here, has led the authorities to close down the only grammar school in the village, on the advice of Dr. Harold E. Miner, a state health officer.

The stricken are Anne Jolly, 11 years old and Henry Wellstock, four. Preventive measures were taken, the physician said, because other members of the families that are now quarantined, have been attending school regularly.

AUTOMOBILE CAPSIZED

Lowell Man Injured When Auto Turned Turtle on Boston Road

Edward Donahue, of 1011 Gorham street, was injured early this morning when the automobile in which he was riding on the Boston road in East Chelmsford, skidded and turned turtle, pinning him to the ground.

He was extricated by Alfred Lakehouse, of 56 Ivanhoe street, and taken to St. John's hospital. The extent of his injuries is not known at the present time but he is not believed to be seriously injured.

The exact time and cause of the accident are unknown as there were no witnesses to the smashup. Lakehouse discovered the damaged car, a light machine of closed type, at 1:45 o'clock this morning. After taking the injured man to the hospital he reported the matter to the police. It had been raining considerably during the evening and in the opinion of the police, Donahue's car skidded off the paved roadway and turned turtle when the wheels hit the soft soil by the side of the road.

AMERICA WINS COURT TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

LONDON, May 9.—(By the Associated Press)—America won the Bathurst cup, emblematic of the international championship at court tennis, through the victory of Jay Gould, of Philadelphia, over E. M. Barclay, the British champion, in the singles today. Gould defeated Barclay in straight sets, 6-5, 6-3, 6-1. America, having clinched the cup, the remaining singles match scheduled will not be played.

Gould's victory squared accounts with Barclay, who scored over the American champion in the cup matches last year.

Gould had previously beaten C. N. Bruce of London, in the singles, and with C. S. Cutting, his roommate defeated Barclay and Bruce in the doubles. Barclay scored Great Britain's only victory when he won in the singles from Cutting.

CHECKER TOURNAMENT

NEW YORK, May 9.—After playing 11 drawn games in the National checker tournament in an all-night session, Sam Gonotsky, Brooklyn expert, defeated Louis Gushberg, also of Brooklyn, early today in the 12th and deciding game of their semi final round match.

Gushberg and Alfred Jordan of Kansas City, the other surviving semi-finalists, will play this afternoon and evening to decide which shall oppose Gonotsky in the championship round tomorrow.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, May 9.—Irregular price changes took place at the opening of today's stock market, with no definite trend apparent in the first few minutes of trading. Most of the rails showed moderate strength. Oils were again heavy. Mack Truck dropped a point. Baldwin and American Can improved fractionally.

Prices steadied in the later trading with good buying developing in the railroad group. Norfolk & Western advanced 1/4, and New Orleans, Texas & Mexico, 3/4. Baldwin cancelled its early gain and May Department Stores dropped 1/2. Sinclair eased 1/4, and then rallied 1/2. Steels held firm. Foreign exchanges opened steady, demand sterling being quoted at 4.25 3/4, and French francs around 5.88 cents.

Prices pointed upward during the first hour with Woolworth old stock soaring six points. Sinclair jumped 3 points and Reading 1/2. The market's dullness, however, encouraged a resumption of short selling which gave the market a reactionary appearance around noon. U. S. Cast Iron Pipe was hammered down nearly 1 point, and special pressure was applied against Baldwin, Bethlehem Steel, Studebaker, Standard Oil of California and Central Leather preferred, which fell one to two points. Brokers reported that professional traders were restricting their commitments owing to the uncertainty regarding the outcome of pending tax legislation. Call money opened at 3 1/2 per cent.

Baldwin subsided early afternoon, the market snapping back briskly in spots when the shorts attempted to cover outstanding commitments. At the low level, U. S. Cast Iron Pipe rallied two points and a good inquiry arose also for Famous Players, International Harvester, Conoco and American & Refiners. Yellow Cab was unquiet, however, was forced down 2 1/2 to 4 1/2, close to the year's minimum.

The closing was irregular. Weakness of the Yellow Cab issue, which broke to new 1924 lows, unsettled the general list in the late trading.

UNIFICATION PRAISED BY EX-SEC. DANIELS

SPRINGFIELD, May 9.—(By the Associated Press)—A message from Joseph Daniels, former secretary of the navy, endorsing the unification of the North and South Methodist churches, was read at the Methodist general conference today. The conference yesterday ratified the unification report of a special committee last Wednesday by 42 to 13.

Thanking the conference for the work of its special committee before the judiciary committee of the United States senate yesterday in behalf of presenting intact the prohibition enforcement law, Wayne H. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League of America, sent a telegram declaring that "the 59 beer bills will die. The constitution will live, and we will win the fight with your continued help."

The general conference voted to send a letter to the United States senate and congressman on the petition to President Coolidge against exclusion of the Japanese from this country by recently enacted immigration legislation now awaiting action by the president.

The ordination of women as local pastors in the Methodist ministry, was approved by the Methodist Episcopal general conference here today by a general majority. The admission to the itinerancy and to membership in the annual conference, was almost unanimously defeated.

It was a partial victory for the feminist element for women have never before been granted ordination, with its concurrent right to administer the sacraments, although since 1920 they have been entitled to temporary settlement as local pastors. A liberal bloc in the conference held that women should be given all the rights and privileges of men. The constitution to the report of the special committee on ordination and conference membership which was proposed by Ray Allen of the Genesee, N. Y., delegation, was snowed under by its opponents.

Enforcement of President Coolidge's request that the official record of legislation excluding the Japanese from this country be postponed until March 1, 1925, was expressed in a resolution passed by the delegates which ordered the distribution to every member of congress of the conference's petition to the president against the exclusion.

FAIRBURN BUYS COURIER-CITIZEN BUILDING

The Courier-Citizen building in the square has been purchased by George U. Fairburn. Mr. Fairburn will take over the property as soon as the building now being remodeled for the newspaper is ready for occupancy. Preliminary agreements have been drawn. The property is at present owned by the heirs of E. T. Rowell and consist of two connected four-story brick buildings with frontage on both Merrimack and Pulke streets. The price is not announced but the estimated value is $33,500 for the land and $23,500 for buildings, a total of $57,000.

LAWRENCE, May 9.—Through an Associated Press despatch printed in a Tennessee paper, word has been received here that a cousin, Charles Sherwood of Eureka, Utah, is the only living relative and heir of Warren R. Fling, a farm hand who died March 15 in North Andover.

One letter, ostensibly from Wheeler to Campbell, dated March 8, 1923, asked Campbell "to have your office send me details of permits in order that when I take it up I may be able to discuss it intelligently with the department of the interior."

Pratt produced also what purported to be a letter dated May 8, 1923, in which Gordon Campbell, then U. S. Attorney, the solicitor of the interior department, 40 acres of land out of one permit and suggested that 40 acres additional be assigned to F. M. Goodwin, assistant secretary of the interior. If the permit could be granted.

The letter said that if Campbell "could get his hands" on the land, the two officials assisting "

Capt. Bond in Command

BAITMORE, May 8.—The steamship Ontario of the Merchants and Miners Transportation Co.'s fleet, reported adrift off Block Island, left Baltimore Tuesday for Boston. She was scheduled to stop at Newport News and Norfolk. She carried passengers and freight from Baltimore, which were augmented by passengers and freight taken on at the Virginia ports.

Captain William J. Bond, one of the veteran skippers of the Merchants and Miners line, is in command.

Twenty-two passengers boarded the Ontario at Baltimore for Boston, according to the passenger list. They included T. H. Chamberlain, Mr. Fee and Mr. Colburn Arthur Brady and wife, Miss A. J. Collins, Miss M. E. Burns, F. H. Irigoin and wife, and Miss F. Lydon all of Boston; Mrs. and Miss Hutchins of Worcester, Mass.; H. G. Dorsey, Gloucester, Mass.; F. L. Cook, Richmond Va., and eight passengers from Baltimore. The company had no record of the passengers going aboard at Norfolk, officials said.

Brief advice received at the line's office here stated that the fire broke out in the cargo to which it was confined and under control. No damage was done to the ship. It was stated. Another ship of the line was standing by. The Ontario carried a general cargo.

Fire Under Control

VINEYARD HAVEN, May 8.—A message from the coast guard cutter Acushnet, received here today, said that the fire on the steamship Ontario was under control and that the steamer was proceeding for Boston. The Acushnet, the message added, was not needed and the steamship Nantuxet had gone to the assistance of the Ontario.

STREET RAILWAY WILL FIGHT BUS LINE

The first step in the street railway company's opposition to the establishment of a bus line to operate between this city and Lawrence, as petitioned for at a recent meeting of the city council by the New England Motor Bus company, will be taken this evening at a meeting of local division employees called by the management.

The meeting will be held in the company's lobby in the Grosvenor building and all street car operators, conductors and motormen who are not working this evening have been requested to be present. The meeting is scheduled for 8 o'clock and will be addressed by local executives of the road and possibly by Trustee Fred Crowley and other officials connected with the Boston office.

The purpose of the meeting, in so far as could be learned this morning, is to acquaint the employees of the local division just what serious effect on their work the establishment of the proposed bus line would have. If the men take the same opposition to this bus line as the company already has, it is believed they can swing into opposition sufficient numbers of persons to successfully oppose the application at the public hearing set for May 20.

HELD IN $300 IN LIQUOR CASE

Michael Weska of Williams street pleaded not guilty in district court this morning to illegally keeping liquor and was continued in $300 until May 27. He was arrested last night after Sgt. Michael H. Winn, and Officers Alfred J. Cooney and Francis H. Moore had found 10 gallons of alleged liquor on his premises.

Other raids were made last night in Tyler and Adams streets are pending.

IMMIGRATION BILL Conference Report Before House—G. O. P. Leaders Work for Approval

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Already under fire in both chambers because of its recommendation to postpone operation of the Japanese exclusion provision until March 1, 1925, the conference report on the immigration bill was before the house today with republican leaders working for its approval. Opponents of the postponement recommendation inserted at the insistence of President Coolidge, upon a delay sufficient to permit negotiation with Japan looking to abrogation of the gentleman's agreement—were equally determined, however, to send the report back to conference.

The report was presented to the house yesterday by Chairman Johnson of the immigration committee, with the announcement that it would be called up today for action. It was not submitted to the senate, congressional procedure requiring action first by the house, but was made the subject of a two hour debate yesterday in which the delay clause was criticized from both sides of the chamber.

The conference, it was contended by opponents of the recommendation, exceeded their authority in fixing upon a date later than established by either chamber in the bills submitted to them for adjustment, but they were in doubt last night that a point of order on the basis of this argument would be sustained.

London's Comment

LONDON, May 8.—The Times commenting editorially on the American anti-Japanese immigration, says undoubtedly much of the friendly atmosphere created by the Washington treaty has been dispelled thereby. Dwelling upon the "fundamental causes of the antagonism" between the Americans and Japanese the paper continues:

It is to ignore the possibility of ultimate conflict in the Pacific, distant though it may be. Nobody will lightly put forward alarmist theories about the ultimate clash between the east and west.

"Upon the people of these islands (Great Britain) with their cherished friendship for Japan and their indissoluble ties with the United States rests perhaps the supreme responsibility for averting so incalculable a disaster, but the seeds of conflict are on either side of the Pacific ocean and it behooves this country to watch with incessant vigilance, every turn in the most tremendous problem confronting the world. The action of the United States marks a very significant stage in its development."

AFTER-SCHOOL MUSIC CLASSES

The annual revival of the after-school music classes of the local elementary schools will be held next Wednesday afternoon in Liberty hall under the direction of Miss Gertrude O'Brien, assistant music director in the public schools.

The meeting of the Teachers' organization scheduled for next Wednesday, has been postponed to the following Wednesday, May 21, at 4 o'clock in the same hall. Supt. Hugh J. Molloy of the school department will be the speaker at this meeting.

LIQUOR CASE HEARINGS AGAIN POSTPONED

An accumulation of cases which already have reached the total of 16, are pending for hearings before United States Commissioner Richard B. Walsh, who has been forced to postpone all scheduled sessions since April 28 because of the continuance appearance of federal enforcement agents before the federal grand jury. Today's session to be held at the local court house was postponed for the same reason.

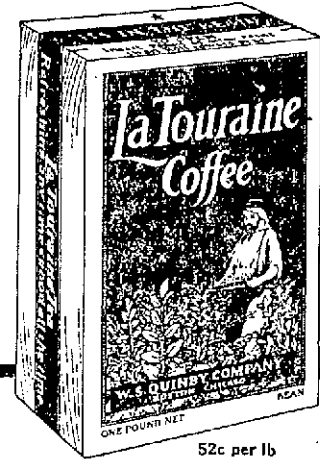

The next scheduled session has been set for May 14, and he followed by other sessions on the 15th, 16th, 21st and 22nd. By the 14th, it is believed the pending cases will reach 20 or more. Two Haverhill men, Constant Sorolus and Charles Walston, both charged with illegal possession of liquor, appeared before Commissioner Walsh this morning at his office and gave bonds for their appearance for hearing at a later date.

M. E. CONFERENCE

Admission of Women to the
Today's Session

SPRINGFIELD, May 8.—Having voted yesterday to end the 80 years' schism between the north and south Methodist churches, the delegates to the Methodist Episcopal general conference expected today to consider another change from the past—the admission of women to the pulpits. A report of the commission on the ordination of women had been made an order of the day, and an eager discussion of the issue was anticipated. This will be the second time in the conference that women have asked for a place with the men in important functions of the church. A resolution ordering the placing of women on church boards was introduced last Monday by Miss M. Madeline Southard of Winfield, Kas., and will be reported later by the standing committee on temporal economy. The delegates will be waiting news from Washington and from Nashville, Tenn. A conference committee was to present at Washington petitions to President Coolidge against Japanese exclusion and to the Senate Judiciary committee against modification of the Volstead enforcement act. At Nashville the southern church's college of bishops will, according to an agreed plan call a special conference of their church to consider ratification of the plan for unification. The commission on the ordination of women and their admission to annual conferences was appointed by the general conference of 1920 at Des Moines, Ia., with instructions to investigate and report to the 1924 conference.

Southern Bishops Meet

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 8.—A special session of the Southern Methodist College of Bishops is expected to be held here today or tomorrow to consider the action on unification taken by the Methodist Episcopal conference yesterday at Springfield, Mass., although Senior Bishop W. A. Candler, has not yet issued a call for such meeting. Official notification of the northern conference resolution is awaited here, it is said, before definite action will be taken by the southern bishops.

By the minutes of the last general conference of the Methodist church south, the college of bishops is "empowered and instructed to call the special session of our general conference when a plan for unification is endorsed by two thirds vote of each (southern and northern) and approved by the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church." All conditions precedent to the calling of the general conference by the college of bishops are fulfilled, it was pointed out. By unification it was pointed out in Methodist circles here, the church would have a total membership of 8,400,000.

The northern Methodist churches now have 3,583,000 members and the southern 2,045,277. Minor branches make up the remainder.

RUN ON SHEETINGS

Reports circulating yesterday in certain quarters of the textile stock investment world, to the effect that general banner production at the Hamilton Manufacturing company's plant in this city would cease in the future, and machinery changed over to prepare for extensive production of sheetings, were denied yesterday by a corporation official in Boston.

In response to a query made by The Sun, Mr. Arthur R. Sharp, treasurer of the Hamilton company, whose executive offices are located at 89 Chauncy street, Boston, replied as follows: "There is no foundation to the rumor that the Hamilton company is to begin running on sheetings."

The local plant on Jackson street is still operating on regular lines but under heavily curtailed time conditions, the rule in force for many weeks past.

HANLEY FLAYS MARINE BUYING

Leader in Textile Labor
 Circles for Cancellation of Uniform Contract Award

Fails to See Why Government Should Permit Bids From Foreign Competitors

Deplores Policy Which Permits Dumping of British Goods With Our Mills Idle

The rank and file of New England's leading cloth manufacturers, together with many textile union organizations, are thoroughly aroused and dismayed by the news received Wednesday in telegraphic dispatches from Manchester, N. H., announcing that a textile manufacturing concern located in Manchester, England, has outbid all American cloth-makers on a United States navy marine uniform cloth contract and will be given the order. "The value of the clothing contract is estimated at $320,000. Many United States marines will soon be wearing the British-made khaki, after the usual process from English construction to the army tailors. Awarding of contracts for American naval uniforms, is something new and many industrialists, rank and file, cannot understand why Uncle Sam had to advertise for bids running 300 miles outside of the boundaries of the United States. Members of the New England textile unions are particularly incensed about it. John Hanley, of the Lowell district of the International United Textile Workers of America, said today. With short time and with no future orders in sight, the action of the U. S. navy department in allowing British textile establishments to compete for military uniform cloth at this time, is regarded as something hard to fathom.

"British-Tongued Yanks"
 Mr. Hanley said this morning, when the news reached Lowell textile union headquarters in Trades and Labor hall, Central street:

"It is not within understanding—this awarding of a $320,000 contract for textile cloth to English manufacturers, with our mills running only three days a week and in some cases less than that, and many preparing to shut down altogether, as some have done already in various sections of the country.

"I suppose that when this cotton khaki is made into ultra-correct uniforms by our naval tailors a little later on, our fighting Yankee soldiers will ride the wave and foam all draped up in British-made togethery that may not bear any English labels, but came from England just the same."

Amoskeag Bitter

The Amoskeag Manufacturing company put in a bid for the navy order some time ago, but announcement comes from Washington that quotation, prices on cotton khaki were listed much lower on the English mill applications.

The order was for 500,000 yards of cotton khaki suiting for the United States marines. The Amoskeag, among other American textile concerns, spent considerable time in preparing sample cloth to comply with government specifications. The Amoskeag bid was 64.2 cents per yard, bids being filed some weeks ago. Announcement came early this week that no American manufacturer had bid low enough to secure the khaki contract, English bidders quoting much lower prices.

The American naval union cloth contract went to Spinner & Co., of Manchester, Eng., which underbid the Amoskeag corporation by more than 37 cents per yard.

Textile Workers Aroused

Lowell district textile workers are talking of little else today. On the street where many operatives idle and wait for something to happen, the subject of the awarding of the military cloth contract to foreign textile mills, when so many American plants are either running on small time or closed altogether, is discussed with indignation.

Leaders of the unions hard-hit by the present curtailment in the cotton textiles, discussed the subject last evening over council tables, but without formal organization action. Executive Board member John Hanley expects a formal communication from I. L. T. W. of A. headquarters in New York, in a few days. Invited to comment on the astonishing award of the naval cloth contract to an English mill while American mills are in the production doldrums, Mr. Hanley said, in part:

Calls Action Outrageous

"The action of the United States naval authorities in allowing foreign textile manufacturing concerns to compete in bidding for cotton cloth that is made here at home, particularly when so many thousands of our men and women textile workers are idle and the mills curtailing heavily or shutting down altogether, is actually outrageous. It doesn't seem true that our government would allow such a proceeding in such hard times as we are having today.

"A matter of saving money, some folks will say. Even if American cotton goods manufacturers cannot under any circumstances compete with foreign-made, cheap-labor and long-hour cloth constructions, and never could, yet at the same time, textile workers believe that it would have been better for the naval authorities to continue the reception of all bids on this khaki cloth contract to American industries and not accept bids from all over the world."

Manchester Up In Arms

"Ten thousand and more textile workers up in Manchester, part of them working but three and four days a week now, and with but few large orders of cloth ahead of them to fill, are roundly denouncing the navy's quartermaster department heads for allowing foreign textile concerns to bid on American government contracts. Furthermore, this sending of an order for American military uniform cloth to English mills at this time appears to all textile workers as particularly untimely and a direct insult as well as a showing of utter disregard for the pliable condition of the unemployed men and women whose only hope of a livelihood and a decent human existence depends upon American prosperity and American business."

Mr. Hanley described numerous local instances of extreme poverty existing today among expert and highly respected Lowell textile operatives with large families to support.

"During hard times, we always hear the cry about 'helping American business and American labor,'" continued the textile labor leader. "What about sending over to England a cloth contract that would have resulted in more employment on this side of the water if the bids had been confined to American industry? Is the action of the naval department helping American business when times are hard in America? Furthermore, this contract goes to a country where low-priced labor is the rule, where vast numbers of little children toil in industrial establishments long hours a day and have no pleasure in life."

"Of what use are the slogans, 'Trade At Home' 'Buy American-made Goods and Keep Our Mills Running' if we are not to practice what we preach. Millions of dollars' worth of foreign-made goods of almost every description are being bought by American importers today in foreign lands at very low prices and are being shipped to the United States on every steamship freight liner. These goods are being unloaded heavily today in American markets, competing with American-made goods and causing the shutting down of many American mills, because of the demand for the cheaply made goods from overseas.

Steady Flow From England

"Millions of yards of cotton textile goods made in English mills have reached New York harbor from English ports, since January 1. I am but one of hundreds of thousands of humble New England citizens who feel that if the United States navy has any clothing contracts to let out for the equipment of American soldiers and marines, all bids for the same should be confined to territories within the boundaries of the United States. Lowell mills have to pay federal taxes. They have to abide by American laws. They are entitled to a better chance to capture some of the contracts that would give men and women textile workers employment when many are idle and in dire want."

"Will some one in the know, please tell us why our government goes so far as to completely ignore the cotton textile industries of New England? It is claimed by government investigators that the trouble with New England mills today is southern competition. Nothing is further from the truth. Southern competition has not greatly hampered New England cotton mills when there were any markets demanding the made goods."

Recommend Cancellation

"Cheaply-made foreign goods, textiles of all kinds, in the cottons, worsteds and woollens, are flooding this country today."

"Foreign-made goods dumped in New York are sold at prices lower than can be quoted for materials of the same grade and quality made in American mills. Because of the ready sale of foreign goods and the promises of American merchants to snap up the low-priced cloth bargains, our textile mills the country over are idling along, with little demand for our quality goods because of the surfeit of English-made textiles that are promptly gobbled up by the wholesalers and jobbers and turned over to the retail trades at handsome profits. "It looks to me as if the navy department ought to cancel that British khaki suiting order, which I understand is for our famous 'devil-dog' marines, and let some of our idle mill operatives right here in Lowell take good care of it. And when I say good, I mean 'the best,' of course."

EHMKE SHADES JOHNSON IN PITCHERS' BATTLE AND RED SOX WIN

Triple by John Collins Important Factor in Boston Victory Over Washington—Sisler Leads Browns to Victory Over Indians

NEW YORK, May 9.—Intersectional baseball in the major league began today on a limited scale with Cleveland and St. Louis of the American league in the east and the Boston Nationals in the west.

By tomorrow the movement will have been completed and until May 25 all National league games will be played in the west and all American league contests in the east.

Rain, postponing all but two meetings yesterday, added the schedule makers by permitting early leave-taking for the traveling teams. In the American league Boston defeated Washington, 4 to 2, and St. Louis won from Cleveland, 4 to 1.

Manager George Sisler was the prominent figure of the Brown triumph. He scored the first run in the first inning after slinging and stealing second base. His home run in the fifth inning drove Ellerbe before him. Winward, a recruit, held Cleveland to six hits.

Howard Ehmke and Walter Johnson engaged in a pitching duel decided adversely for the Washington iron man, as Boston converted his three passes into runs. A triple by John Collins in the first inning tallied two. Johnson also hit two men. Ehmke was steady.

SEVEN N. E. AMATEUR BOXING CHAMPIONS CROWNED AT MEET

Kirby Retains 175-Pound Title—Stone of Boston New Heavyweight King—Mass. Boxers Won Every Event and Boston Men Carried Off Four of Eight Events

BOSTON, May 9.—Seven New England amateur boxing champions were crowned and one champion retained his title in the championship tournament concluded here early today. Tom Kirby of Boston, defending 175 pound champion, retained his title by gaining a decision in the final round over Earl O'Neill, also of Boston. Other title-holders crowned are: 160-pound class, Joseph Morruzzi, Bridgeport, Mass.; 147-pound class, Edward Adams, Boston; 125-pound class, "Red" Griffin, Chelsea; 118-pound class, "Dick" Dick, Salem; 112-pound class, Frank McDonald, Newton; 105-pound class, Sammy Fuller, Boston.

All of the bouts were scheduled to go three rounds.

The summaries, final round: Heavyweight class—Stone, Boston, defeated A. Russo, Watertown, three rounds, decision. 175-pound class, Kirby, Boston, defeated O'Neill, Boston, three rounds, decision.

BOXING BOUTS TONIGHT ALL BOYS ARE ELIGIBLE

Roy and Thomas Reported in Perfect Condition for Moody Club Main Event

With both boys reported in perfect condition after a careful period of diligent training, fans may expect a hectic battle when Leo Kid Roy, champion featherweight of Canada and Tony Thomas of New Bedford, former N. E. bantamweight champion meet in the main event of the Moody club card in Crescent rink tonight.

The battle has created considerable interest throughout the city. Roy, a former Lowell boy, got his pugilistic start in the Moody club ring a few years ago. At that time he was known as George Parker. He first appeared in the six round preliminaries, but soon graduated to the semi-final ranks. Here he enjoyed continued success. Then he went to Canada. He continued to advance and gradually fought his way into the main event class. He soon got a chance at the Canadian featherweight champion and he succeeded in winning the title. He lost it, but shortly after regained possession of the championship belt, which he retains today.

He came back to Lowell a few months ago and showed just why he succeeded to the throne by handing Terry Parker a licking in a rugged battle. A few weeks ago he fought in Men-

Big Athletic Meet to Be Held in Connection With Boys' Week Here

Announcement was made this morning that, in connection with Lowell's public celebration of Boys' week, May 16, 17 and 18, an athletic meet is to be held on the South common on the morning of Saturday, May 17, to which all boys of the city are eligible.

A happy selection for referee is the Chester, losing a hair-line decision to Terry Martin of Providence.

The Manchester battle figures indirectly in the coming auto. Tony Thomas who will be the party of the second part in tonight's feature, has been training all week with Terry Martin, now in Boston under Alec Maclean's management. As a result he feels he has acquired knowledge that will aid him against Roy. On the other hand Roy, who is anxious to get another crack at Martin to wipe out the black mark against his record, will strive to score decisively over Thomas and then open negotiations for a return engagement with the Rhode Island boy.

The other bouts on tonight's card look good. In the semi-final Boney Nelson will meet Young Leonard of Boston. There will also be two six-round preliminaries, the first of which will go on at 8.30 o'clock.

appointment of Carl L. Schrader, state supervisor of physical education. The athletic event will be in charge of Arthur Sullivan, Donald MacIntyre and George Sturtevant, assisted by a large number of officials, who will take charge of the various contents.

Three different events, all sure to prove highly attractive to the boys' week celebrators and athletic program participants, as well as the multitude of spectators expected to watch the performances, will be run at the same time and according to the following schedule:

Events for boys—1 to 12 years of age: 30-yard dash, potato race.

Events for boys—12 to 15 years of age: 50-yard dash, 440-yard dash, high jump, running broad jump.

Events for boys—15 to 18 years of age: 100-yard dash, 2-mile run, high jump, broad jump.

Relay races, 4 men to team—1. Junior highs; 2. grammar schools; 3. parochial schools.

Special 100-yard dash for city championship.

The enthusiastic athletic committee working solely to make the boys' week event a genuine attraction and success, consists of the following:

James Linton, Lowell high school; James P. Conway, American Legion; Thomas Higgins, M.C.C.; Charles Towne, Y.M.C.A.; Bruce Douglas, Y.M.C.A.; William Walsh, Broadway club; John Mahoney, C.Y.M.C.; Daniel O'Connor, O.M.C. Cadets; Timothy Linahan, Lowell high school; James O'Day, South End club; William Sullivan, Junior Twilight league.

The entry cards for these various events will be distributed to the schools within a day or two. They are being contributed by a member of the Lowell Rotary club.

More than twice as many Elcho cigars were sold during the first four months of this year than in the same period last year. This record is attributed to the fact that the Elcho is made by hand from a choice long Havana filler, which the smokers have been quick to appreciate. BIG MEET POSSIBILITY

Noted track stars may come to Lowell on June 21, when a championship meet will be staged at Alumni field for the benefit of the high school athletic club fund. At a meeting of Lowell business men held yesterday afternoon at 430 in the chamber of commerce quarters, with members of the High School Alumni association also present, the main topic considered was a possible source of raising money to fully cover the track building expenses was an athletic field day.

School athletic stars from many cities and towns would be invited to come to Lowell and compete in the athletic contests to be arranged. Faculty Manager Conway of the high school expects to hear from Medford high school in a few days, anticipating that the athletes from this section would prove a great attraction alone. The new track at Alumni field will be ready in about eight weeks and will cost more than $5000. It is expected that no more than $300 has been raised thus far, and only 102 subscriptions of one dollar apiece brought in.

The working committee now hopes that by a lively field day in June, with prominent high school athletes on hand to show their wares in exciting contests of the track and field, enough money can be raised to pay all bills incurred.

Another meeting of the alumni field committee was scheduled for 430 this afternoon at chamber of commerce rooms.

CAPT. REYNOLDS TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Capt. James Reynolds will attend the annual convention of the American Water Works association, to be held in New York city on May 19. The trip was authorized yesterday by the board of public service after Supt. Robert W. Gardner declined first opportunity to attend.

QUINTEN ROMARO MEETS FLOYD JOHNSON

NEW YORK, May 9.—Quinten Romero of Chile tonight lays claim to the garlands and riches showered by the United States upon members of the pugilistic royalty of South America.

The heir presumptive to the position in heavyweight circles destined by Luis Firpo of Buenos Aires, mingles for 10 rounds to a decision with Floyd Johnson of Iowa. Experts predict that the plain fighter from the Hawkeye state will crush Quinten and his aspirations.

The bout is the first of an elimination series planned by Tex Rickard to select a trial horse for Harry Wills before his contemplated battle with Champion Jack Dempsey on Sept. 6. Either Romero or Johnson will be matched with Jack Remoli on June 21, and the winner of that bout probably will meet Wills at an undetermined date.

Morris Schaffer of Omaha and Harry Martone of Jersey City, meet in an eight-round semi-final. Joe Stessel, former amateur heavyweight champion, clashes with Tommy Gardner, a new comer from the coast in a six-round heavyweight preliminary.

BOYS' CLUB WINS CITY LEAGUE HONORS

The Boys' club defeated the Eagles, 22 to 19, in a hotly contested game last evening in the YMCA gym and won the City Basketball league championship. The Eagles put up a hard fight throughout the game but tired toward the end and the Boys' club team, through superior play, forged into the lead and held it.

The American Juniors accept the challenge of the Belvidere Mohawks for a game on the South common May 17 for a 50-cent ball. Partly will be on the mound for the Americans. The rest of the lineup will be as follows: Boyan c, L. L. 1b, DeRaz 2b, Donavan ss, Seigni 3b, Thomas H, Lisen cf, Bartl rf.

The Acers Independents have organized for the season. Last year this team was known as the White Stars, but decided to change their name this season. The team is under the management of Bert Durkin, who managed the St. Anne's basketball team. Games are wanted with the St. Peter's Cardinals, Butler, Belmont, Tyler A.C., Kittredge's Pals and Merrinacks. The manager has signed Tardiff, Richards, Coaller, Dinard, Normandin, Bell, Boyce, Berard, Hestian, Plouffe, Chase, Davey, White and Nowak. These men will play the St. Anne's practice game on the North common Monday evening.

The Cardinal Midgets will play the Elks in the first of three-game series a week from Saturday for a 50-cent ball each side. The Cardinal Midgets claim the 13-14-year-old championship and all disputing this claim are requested to get in touch with Manager Perrault at 100 Lakeview avenue. The Midgets have already annexed 12 straight wins with the following lineup: Bevens c, Merrier p, Pailaoui 1b, Capt. Perrault 2b, Sweet ss, Vic 3b, Vandette lf, Lynch cf, Merrier rf.

In reply to a statement by the Cloverleaf Juniors to the effect that they did not consider the defeat administered to them by the Belvidere Pirates a just one, as they said the Pirates exceeded the 11-13-year-old age limit, the Pirates wish to admit that they were older than the Cloverleafs, but before the game they were given to understand that they were to play a 13-14-year-old team. However, the Pirates are willing to give the game as a forfeit to the Cloverleafs if they can find any one man in the lineup over 14 years of age. The Cloverleafs, in the Pirates' estimation, are a 12-14-year-old team. All outfits desiring games call 6656-M.

The Riverides would like to hear from the National Indians, Chisox and other teams. Answer through this paper. The lineup is: Baron c, Mello p, Shorly 1b, Joe 2b, Butler 3b, Gibaldin ss, Stanley rf, Billy cf and Johnny lf. The Riverides have organized for their third season and would like to hear from the Buffaloes, Cardinals, Emeralds, Celtics and other fast teams in and around Lowell. Call 1460 or see the manager at Kittredge's alley.

FAMOUS ST. JAMES NOT TO RUN IN PREAKNESS

BALTIMORE, Md., May 9.—The announcement yesterday that George D. Widener's famous St. James would not run in the Preakness at Pimlico

next Monday, came as a decided jolt to race followers, and the elimination of this favorite left fans casting about for another candidate for the Maryland classic.

The victory of Mad Play at Jamaica yesterday threw the Sinclair roll more into the limelight, and Bud Fisher's filly Mellemorse, by winning the Pimlico Oaks, carrying the same weight which would be assigned her in the Preakness, also stepped a bit into the foreground.

Sunsport, one of Clifford Doehman's hopes, did a mile in 1:41.2-5 to win at Old Hill Top yesterday, while Mr. Mutt, considered another possible Bud Fisher candidate, came in third in the same race.

Indications at present point to a field of about 16 or 17 starters.

TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY MISSING FROM HOME

John Cashman, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cashman of 25 Bassett street, has been missing from his home since last Tuesday, and his parents were anxious to learn of his whereabouts. The youngster attended St. Peter's school until Tuesday afternoon when he disappeared. He is described as being small for his age, round faced, with brown hair and brown eyes. The police have been notified of his unexplainable absence from home, and officers have been instructed to be on the lookout for him. Any information leading to his recovery will be deeply appreciated by his parents.

Weather Indications Not Good for Harvard Meet

and Ernest Latham, Slavin, Welch, Forrest and Fred Vinal. The entry list now has reached the record total of 304, representing 29 schools, which also is a new record for the event. It is doubtful if any better field has ever entered a Harvard school boy meet. University school of Cleveland, Ohio, has entered two athletes and practically every big preparatory and high school in New England will show the best of its talent.

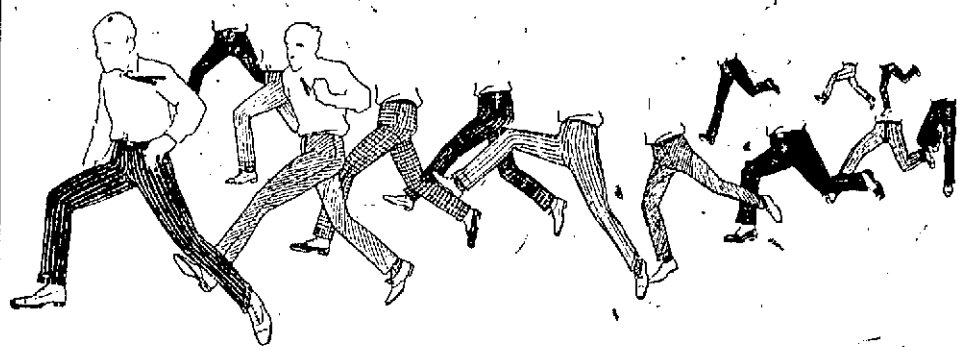

Andover academy, with 27 men entered, is favored to win the meet for the third consecutive year, but will find the going hard. Exeter has a big squad ready for action and Worcester, Cushing and Dean academies also will provide top notch competition.

The following is a complete list of schools who will have representatives in the meet follows: Andover, Exeter, Worcester Academy, Cushing Academy, Dean Academy, Huntington school, Boston English High, Boston Trade, Lynn English High, Lynn Classical High, Somerville High, Bridge Technical School, Cambridge High and Latin, Burlington, Vt. High, Cranston High, Rhode Island, DeWitt Clinton School of Boston, Hyde Park High, Lawrence High, Lowell High, St. John's Prep, Stoneham High, Walpole High, University School of Cleveland, Milton Academy, Medford High, Pinkerton Academy, Quincy High, Newton High and Allen-Chalmers School.

A dinner will be given at the Harvard Varsity club at 8:30 p. m. for all the visiting athletes, with William C. Floyd, former manager of the Harvard track team as toastmaster. Among the speakers will be Head Coach Bob Fisher of the Harvard football team, William J. Birmingham, Major Gen. A. W. Brewster and Arthur Withington.

The Lowell boys will leave for Cambridge in the middle of the forenoon and will be entertained at luncheon at the university before the meet.

GAME POSTPONED The Abbot Worsted-leading game scheduled for this evening at Greaterville has been cancelled, but will be played at a date to be announced later.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 13

Jack was enjoying it very much as the little pony walked slowly along back toward the pony tent. He sat up straight in the saddle and pulled on the lines, steering the pony this way and that. Flip, in the meantime, was satisfied to run along behind. He seemed to like the little animal, too.

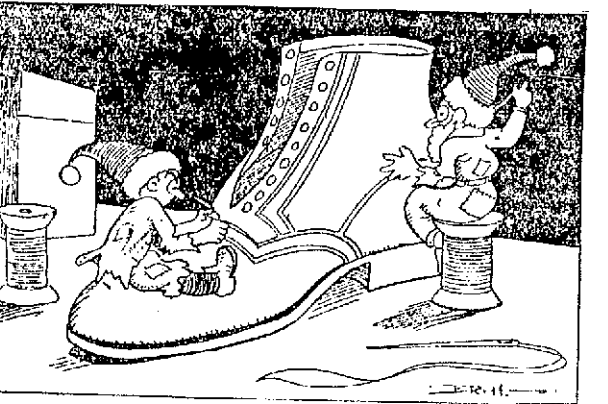

Just before the pony tent was reached a voice behind Jack said, "Say, young fellow, will you give me a ride?" Jack pulled the pony to a stop and looked around. There stood the tallest man Jack had ever seen. He carried a long cane and had a very high silk hat on his head.

"Do you really want to ride this pony?" asked Jack. "Why sure I do," laughed the tall man. So Jack slid off the pony's back and led the animal right up in front of his new friend. "Well, go ahead," said Jack, "but don't take a long ride; I'm in a hurry." (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

THEY JUMPED UP ON THE WORK BENCH AND BEGAN TO SEW

The next place Mister Mugs took the Twins in Once-Upon-a-Time Land was to see the Poor Cobbler. Although indeed he was not poor now. He was very, very rich and needed to cobbler no longer for a living.

However, riches had not spoiled him, and he was out in the yard under a tree smoking his old pipe and blowing great puffs of smoke into the air.

"We came to see you and your good wife," called Mister Mugs when he had parked the little car outside the gate. "May we come in?"

"Of course, of course," said the kindly cobbler. "Come right in and I'll call Sally and we can have a party. I think she has just made some fresh cookies, and the Jersey cow gives rich milk."

After Nancy had had six cookies and Nick eight, the cobbler told his story. "We are very, very poor," he said. "Somehow or other everything had gone wrong. Sometime I was sick, sometimes my wife was sick, and sometimes both of us together. Our savings in the teapot on the mantelpiece got less and less and finally disappeared completely."

"Well, at last there was only enough leather left for one pair of shoes. Late one night I cut them out, and then went to bed so I could get up early in the morning and finish the work. The next morning when I went into my shop, there lay the shoes on my bench all finished to the last stitch, and sewed so neatly that I got twice the price for them I usually did."

"I lost no time buying enough leather for two pairs of shoes. Next morning there they were, ready to the last button, although I had done nothing but cut them out."

"That was under many nights. Each night the mysterious visitor appeared twice as many shoes as he had the night before. I became the richest man in town."

"My wife decided to watch, so one night we hid behind the door, and at 12 o'clock two ragged little men came, no bigger than my hand. They jumped up on the work bench and began to sew. They must have been fairies, for never have I seen shoes made so fast. A stitch and a snip and they were done."

"We said to ourselves, 'Till for tat. The little fellows need clothes. Perhaps that is what they are working for.'"

WERE WELL PLEASED WITH ENTERTAINMENT

Chelmsford town hall was filled with a delighted throng of men, women and children last evening, prepared to be entertained by the members of the Village Improvement Association, who had arranged for an entertainment of much merit. Song numbers, instrumental music, monologues, solo dances and specialties covering comedy acts and dialogues, featured an excellent program in which many well known Chelmsford families took prominent parts. A musical show was also featured, with Frank Proctor acting as interlocutor.

Appearing in the entertainment numbers programmed, were Miss Ruth A. Smith, Miss Mildred Jean, Miss Catherine Green, Miss Clifford Davis, R. C. Hazeltine, Cleveland Nobles, Harry E. Parkhurst, Frank Lupton, Mrs. Warren Kneeland, Miss Eleanor Hazeltine, the Miller trio, Miss Elizabeth P. Warren.

Candy and salted nuts were sold under the direction of Mrs. Royal P. Dutton, Mrs. Ralph P. Adams, Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Ernest Hartman, Mrs. Frank McManis, Mrs. William Parker, Mrs. Jennie Fletcher, Mrs. H. A. Vickery, Mrs. John Wrigley, and Miss Warren and were sold by the following girls: Edith Charlton, Ruth Jettis, Eleanor Parkhurst and Marlene Green.

The ushers were Barbara A. Parkhurst, Julia Warren, Helen Reed and Gertrude Jewell.

Those taking part were as follows: Interlocutor, Frank Proctor; end men, in red and green costumes, Frank Lupton, Raymond C. Hazeltine, Mrs. E. Parkhurst; and women, in short skirts and overblouse of red and white, Miss Catherine Green, Mrs. Anna Davis, Mrs. Jennie Fletcher, Miss Edith Charlton, Miss Mildred Jean, Miss Eleanor Hazeltine, chorus, Mrs. Pearl Adams, Mrs. Elita Braddon, Mrs. Norah Baldwin, Mrs. Emma Dore, Mrs. Frank McManis, Mrs. William Parker, Mrs. Jennie Fletcher, Mrs. H. A. Vickery, Mrs. John Wrigley, and Miss Warren and were sold by the following girls: Edith Charlton, Ruth Jettis, Eleanor Parkhurst and Marlene Green.

"After 14 years' service in the state government, to which I have given all my time and energy, I am absolutely certain that my duty now lies in other directions. I am confirmed in this decision by my own sincere belief that there are other worthy men available as candidates who can be certain of election. Massachusetts stands squarely behind President Coolidge and will elect a senator who will give him loyal and whole-hearted support."

Dallinger a Candidate

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Representative Dallinger of the 5th Massachusetts district announced last night that he was a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator. He reached the decision after receiving a telegram from Governor Cox stating that he would not enter the race, and in reply wrote the governor that "I would very much appreciate your support."

In a statement Mr. Dallinger said that he was "definitely and irrevocably determined to be a candidate."

Congressman Dallinger was born in Cambridge. He worked his way through Harvard college and Harvard law school. He was elected to the Massachusetts house and two years later to Massachusetts senate. He served as chairman of committee of metropolitan affairs, which whole metropolitan system was created. The new system in reforming the whole system county finances and put on statute books beneficial reforms in insurance laws.

He is the author of several works on science of government, his "Nomination for Elective Office" being an authority. He lectured on government at Harvard. He was former chairman of house elections committee, being promoted to chairmanship of house education committee.

TEAMSTERS ASK FOR NEW HORSES

Tell Public Service Board
They Are Ashamed to Pick Up Reins

Five New Pairs to Be Bought
to Replace Aged and
Weak Equines

The board of public service yesterday voted to buy five pairs of horses for the street department. This action was taken after a committee of three teamsters, with Michael Hogan as spokesman, appeared before the board to ask that new horses be purchased for the department.

The men stated that they are ashamed to drive many of the horses now in service and that it is highly doubtful if any of the ancient doings in the department have sufficient strength to pull a loaded wagon on the East Main street grade. "People on the street say we are driving horses that are as old as the hills," said Mr. Hogan. "There haven't been any horses bought for the street department since 1914. We are driving some old horses with hardly strength enough to pull even a light load. Some of them are fire department ponies that had outlived most of their usefulness before we got hold of them at all."

Mr. Hogan requested to command the men for coming before the board and bringing the matter to official attention. Chairman Murphy found that of the $25,000 asked for in the budget for equipment only $10,000 was allowed and about $6000 has been spent for a sweep. He moved to purchase five pairs of horses and it was carried unanimously.

At a meeting of the board only a few weeks ago it was voted to buy five pairs of horses for the police and waste department and to dispatch some of the old-timers in the employ of the department.

'TAS TOUGH OLD NIGHT

Accompanied by Thunder
and Lightning

"De Win' She Blow Lak
Hurricane—Bimeby She

Northeasters come and go, in all seasons of the year, with equal blustering tactics and usually severe wind gales that many times do considerable damage in many cities and countryside.

Last night, one of those northeasters, accompanied by thunder and lightning, made itself felt with an exhibition of one of the "biggest blows" recorded for some time past. Weather watchers say it must have reached 60 miles an hour late last night and during the early hours of this morning.

For a near record-breaker in big winds, the storm was without many damage fringes, so far as reported. The park department had nothing to report from the recreation places where the shade trees and shrubbery offer their welcome and succor. The wind may have danced through Lowell at a gallop or more, but it was not venturing in its passage through the town that usually suffers the destruction of trees and tree limbs, fallen telephone or telegraph poles, broken street lights and other damages attributed to the elements driven by old King Storm.

Prognosticators are bulletining "rain tonight and Saturday." Fresh easterly winds are due, the weather vane shows a drift toward straight east today. Clearing weather is hoped for by Saturday afternoon and the happiest prediction of all in today's prophetic reading: Sunday will be fair.

Last night's weather charts showed an extensive area of low barometric pressure at that time, embracing practically all districts from the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic coast. Rains were general during the last 48 hours east of Mark Twain's favorite transportation route. Temperatures are sub-normal generally east of the Rocky mountains. California, of course, never reports anything but normal, sunshiny weather, so reports from that state are not called for.

Forming New Cabinet

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 9.—Sir Robert Bond, former premier of Newfoundland, has refused to re-enter public life and accept the task of forming a cabinet, as requested yesterday by Premier W. R. Warren, whose government resigned on Wednesday. Mr. Warren planned to visit Governor Albery today and it was understood that he would recommend that the governor invite Sir William Gower, president of the fishermen's union, to become premier.

REFUSES TO GRANT REPRIEVE
BATON ROUGE, La., May 9.—Al though he has received since yesterday morning hundreds of appeals for clemency, Gov. Parker announced today that he would not grant a last minute reprieve to any of the six Italians condemned to die today for the murder of Dallas Gaines.

NOT TO ALTER DIVORCE LAW IN IRELAND

DUBLIN, May 9.—Notwithstanding intimations to the contrary, it is authoritatively stated that the Dublin government has no intention of altering the law so as to provide for complete divorce. A number of persons, desiring to remarry after having obtained judicial separations from the Irish courts, achieved that end by promoting private legislation in the British parliament through the house of lords, and others now are appealing to the Free State parliament to pass private legislation in the same way. A number of bills have been lodged for this purpose, but they are held up pending inquiry into the whole matter by a joint committee of the Dail and senate.

PRESIDENT OF COSTA RICA

LOWELL DISTRICT COURT

Movement on Foot to Cleanup the South Common—Today's Cases

Thomas Toohy, John Kelley, Thos. P. Queney, John P. Fogarty and Michael Cronin, who were "rounded up" on the South common by Officer Clyde Aldrich yesterday, all pleaded guilty to drunkenness in district court today. Deputy Doherty stated that residents in the vicinity of the common are complaining daily of insobriety there, and Judge Bright agreed that the place must be cleaned up. Consequently, he sentenced Fogarty to two months in the house of correction, and each of the other four to one month.

Drunkenness and Trespassing
John H. Donahue, Frank M. Donahue and John J. Herlihy were taken in by Special Officer Howard Shmonds of the Boston & Maine railroad, and Officer Aldrich, the former two charged with drunkenness and trespassing, and the

VETERANS OF WORLD WAR FOR FINAL VOTE ON REVENUE BILL

Nine Members of Lowell Chapter of Disabled Veterans III in Hospitals

The blight of serious illness affecting the lives of nine members of Lowell chapter No. 6, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, was announced this morning by the organization's sick benefit committee. The incapacitation of so many members of a single war veterans' organization of local establishment was unofficially announced by members of the order, who are individually aiding so far as possible their comrades in greatest need at this time.

The disabled ex-soldiers now confined to hospital cots in various parts of the country, whose names have just been officially tabulated, and who are each and every one loyal members in good standing of Lowell chapter, D.A.V. of W.W., are receiving treatment in the following locations:

St. John's hospital, Lowell, 1; Isolation hospital, Lowell, 2; United States Veterans' hospital, Otis, North Carolina, 1; Worcester State hospital, 1; Saranac Lake, N. Y., 1; at homes, Lowell, 2.

Two Lowell cases are reported very serious, tuberculosis ravages having not been checked in either case and little hope held by assisting veterans of resources in either pathetic disability reported. Two tuberculosis cases are being efficiently taken care of at Lowell isolation hospital, Lowell chapter officials announce, and are making some improvement under carefully supervised treatment of the modern kind. Reports from Saranac Lake and North Carolina are favorable. The Worcester hospital case is a mental one.

Delegates to Convention
Lowell chapter members conducted a brief business session last night to discuss plans for attending the fourth annual state department convention of the D.A.V. of the W.W., to be held in Fall River, May 21-24. Delegates were chosen to represent the local chapter as follows:

Commander William C. Geary, ex-officio; Henry F. O'Sullivan, past commander; Ralph Dodge, past commander; William Frederick, Charles Collins and John Condon.

Sixteen new members have been enrolled in chapter No. 6 since March 5. Applications are on file from far sections of the country, where former Lowell soldier boys have drifted since the close of the World War. Action will be taken on the "far-removed" at the next meeting in two weeks.

Lowell chapter members are to hold a gala outing campaign during the coming summer, along the reaches of Nahannett pond, an old and favorite habitat for "O'Sullivan and all the rest of 'em."

The Memorial day committee has completed arrangements for the ceremonies to be conducted in a simple, patriotic manner at each of the cemeteries in Lowell, on the morning of May 30.

Advocates of Farm Relief Legislation Want to In- clude McNary-Haugen Bill

Two Attempts to Force Vote Blocked by Objections
From Both Sides

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Pressing toward a final vote on the revenue bill, the senate today faced a stumbling block in the plan of advocates of farm relief legislation to tack the McNary-Haugen bill to the measure as an amendment.

Two attempts made during a 10-hour session yesterday to restrict debate on the bill today and agree to vote on it for passage at 5 o'clock were blocked by objections from both sides of the chamber.

All of the committee amendments were disposed of yesterday with adoption of a gift tax, one of the two new taxes in the bill. That imposed on Mah Jong sets of 10 per cent is the other.

The three outstanding changes made in the bill by the senate, all with the vote of the democratic-republican insurgent coalition and all against the wishes of the organization republicans and the expressed desire of President Coolidge are:

Opening of tax returns and the hearings of the proposed board of tax appeals to the house.

Substitution of a graduated tax on undistributed profits of corporations for the present flat corporation levy.

OIL RESERVE LEASES

Cases Asked by Doheny Companies

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—Dismissal of the government's suit to cancel naval oil reserve leases granted in the Doheny interests in Kern county, California, was asked in an answer filed in federal court yesterday by attorneys for the Pan-American Petroleum Co. and the Pan-Petroleum & Transport Co.

Denying categorically all allegations of illegality and conspiracy in connection with the leases the answer states that expenditures of approximately $10,000,000 have been made or provided for by the defendant companies in order to carry out their contracts with the government and points out that if these are annulled, great depreciation would result.

CALL FOR "MASTER RECORD"
WASHINGTON, May 9.—Because of assertions of a "serious lack of coordination in the records" of the shipping board and Fleet corporation relating to valid assets, the house committee investigating the board today adopted a resolution directing the preparation of a "master record" showing a complete history of each financial transaction.

Charles K. Ford, assistant to the advertising manager of the Fleet corporation, was examined today by the committee as to the advertising policies and organization.

Notice has been received of a most successful dramatic and song recital given last Sunday evening at the Princess Theatre, New York, by Miss Helen A. Caspary of Lowell. A large audience received the program which was composed entirely of original character sketches, poems and songs. Miss Caspary long has enjoyed an unusually fine reputation in dramatic circles and her New York success will be gladly noted by her many Lowell friends and acquaintances.

"Some farm relief measure" will be enacted at this session, senate administration leaders announce.
